Lebanon club channels the 'power of peace'

Like many young professionals in Lebanon, Anhal Kozhaya was ready to take his place among the latest generation to flee the country's troubles — not war this time, but an economic crisis that has driven widespread poverty, social unrest, and a collapse of public services. Then, he had second thoughts.

"Rotary is, honestly speaking, what kept me here in Lebanon," says the 22-year-old, who works as an administrative officer at the British Embassy in Beirut. "Rotary is what kept me motivated and inspired and always wanting more for my country. If that wasn't the case, I would have left this country a long time ago and wouldn't have thought twice about coming back."

Kozhaya is president of the Rotary Club of Beirut Pax Potentia, or "the power of peace" in Latin. The year-old club, which focuses on peacebuilding, has its origins in a project funded by a Rotary Foundation global grant. Another notable attribute: Its 17 members have an average age of 23, a young demographic that's leaving Lebanon in high numbers.

Club's 2024-2025 Installation and Pool Party is June 27

There will not be a morning meeting on next Thursday, June 27. Instead, we are all invited to a Pool Party and Club Installation at Susan Sackett's new pool at 3680 Dubsdread Circle. Dress code is appropriate swimming pool attire including swimsuits. We will install new officers, award a Paul Harris Fellowship, and more. Join us from 5:30PM to 7:30PM to celebrate the successes of 2023-2024 and kick off 2024-2025. Significant others and family members are invited to attend. Please sign up today or RSVP to George Stuart at george.stuart@att.net.

Rotary Firsts and Facts

Youth Exchange is one of Rotary's most popular and successful programs. When and where was the first exchange? The first youth exchange was when the Rotary Club of Copenhagen arranged to host several American boys in 1921.

The joys of volunteering for the Rotary Youth Exchange program

As a Rotary Youth Exchange student from Sweden in the 1970s, Olof Frisk chose to study in Colorado because he wanted to ski. But it was meeting the other exchange students in the district that carved his life's path. Frisk went on to join a Rotary club and serve as president, chair of his district's Youth Exchange committee, and then chair of the multidistrict committee overseeing the program throughout Sweden. Today, as governor of District 2340, he says volunteering to help Youth Exchange grow is an investment in Rotary's future. Learn more about how volunteers are at the heart of the Rotary Youth Exchange program.

Finding her people through Rotary Youth Leadership Awards

When Ashlyn Anderson was young, her parents hosted a Rotary Youth Exchange student from Mexico who taught her Spanish. That experience fueled her desire for a short-term Rotary Youth Exchange to Perth, Australia. But attending her district's Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA) cemented her connection with Rotary. Now, she is studying to earn a master's degree at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, having learned about global grant scholarships during her involvement in RYLA. Learn more about the value of various Rotary youth programs in Anderson's blog post for Rotary Voices.
