Club of Lakeport

WELCOME

President Mark convened the meeting and welcomed all members and our guests.

MOMENT OF SILENCE

President Mark members asked about concerns for the moment of silence:

Ruth Lincoln gave a harrowing story about being asked by a hospital to authorize the euthanasia of her sister, Roseann, who had suffered a stroke. Ruth declined and asked the staff to remove the medical devices from her sister. Once that was done, her sister commenced a rapid recovery, and she is doing nicely.

Greg Scott asked that we remember recently deceased former football player Jim Otto.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Mark substituted in for Jennifer, who was unavailable. He commenced his thoughts by telling us some of the history of the bell used to open our meetings. The bell was once won by a Rotary club in New York City in 1922. Rumor has it that the New York club lost track of the bell shortly after a relative of Mark's visited that club, and now we have to listen to it. The bell's wooden stand was cut out of the hull of the USS Paul Harris, which sank shortly thereafter.

GUESTS

We were treated to a large number of members of the CLHS Rotoact Club as well as their talented sponsor Faith. The members introduced themselves, and the graduating seniors indicated their plans for the future. It is always a positive event to interact with our Interact youth.

DETECTIVE

Pam took over the Detective duties, although she prefers "Happy Bucks" to actually being a detective.

Andy happily paid because he attempted to solicit bribes to count the votes at the talent show.

Marie was happy about how well the talent show came off.

Herb is hopeful that CLHS is close to reviving aeronautics classes.

Faith is rightfully ecstatic about the members of Rotoact, and we are ecstatic about the job she has done on behalf of our Club.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Mark announced that the creation of our Club's foundation is still progressing, and might be in place in time for Mark to run for reelection.

Marty gave an update on the Club's finances. It appears we will survive the tax and spend policies of the present administration.

We played "WHO DAT". The study footballer turned out to be John Lawson. He hasn't aged a bit.

Mark reminded us that Top 40 will be on Wednesday night at ULHS and Thursday at CLHS.

The Finley was eventually claimed by David MoonWainright

The high fashion tote bag was won by Ruth Lincoln

And someone won the $10
