WELCOME TO THE 911 REMEMBRANCE

President Pam called the meeting to order. She looked good considering she had just returned from a gold prospecting trip to the Yukon, catching Covid, and being thrown out of the Malamute Saloon.

PLEDGE MOMENT OF SILENCE

President Pam called on Greg Scott to lead the Pledge and transition on to the Moment Of Silence. Greg did his normal Toastmaster job of leading the Pledge. He asked that we use the moment of silence to remember those who were killed in responding to the Twin Towers and furthermore, all those who died defending our country. Lucky for us, Greg was unable to read all the names of the deceased.

GUESTS

GUESTS

Brock introduced his son Nate who is home on leave from the military.

Also visiting was Wilda Shock, now with BiCostal Media. Wilda was misinformed. She thought that Rotary was hosting a Presidential debate.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

THOUGHT OF THE DAY

Pam monopolized the meeting by telling us all the lurid details about her trip to the LAND OF THE MIDNIGHT SUN. She harpooned a whale, entered herself and her dog in the Iditarod, and had dinner with Sarah Palin, where they kept watch on Russia. All in all, she had a great time, and she can't wait to go back.

DETECTIVE

Mark Lipps was the Detective/Happy Bucks person.

Mark started by fining Jennifer Strong for continuing to sell frozen hamburgers. Mark was not deterred by the fact that Jennifer was not present.

Dennis Fordham bragged about single-handedly putting a new sidewalk in front of his Law Office. However, during the construction, Lance fell and injured himself into what was to become the new sidewalk.

Lance ignored his injuries and went mountain biking near Downeyville. Naturally he crashed his bike and further injured himself. Please take time to send Lance a card addressed to Sutter Lakeside Hospital, critical cane ward. No gifts please.

Ruth related some stories about her 911 experiences as well as nursing during the Loma Prieta earthquake.

Faith was thrilled that her Dad received his citizenship papers.

Dana cannot wait to go to Camp Menopause. I have insider information about this annual trip. You don't want to know what goes on!

SPEAKER

Dennis Fordham introduced our speaker, Matt Barnes who is Lake County's Area Director for the U C Extension program. They deal with creepy crawlers, weeds, and other fascinating things.
