Welcome and Pledge

President Pam opened; Janice led the pledge.

Guests

Greg introduced Dave, President of the Vietnam Veteran's Association.

Melissa introduced her "perennial guest," Chuck.

Faith introduced her mother Janice and her realtor, Mary Ann. Both may join the club. There will be a bidding war to determine who gets to sponsor Faith's mother.

Thought of the Day

Greg asked us to remember the Vietnam Vets who served their country and the judges who keep us safe. (We try, but I would add the police, who are out there on the front lines protecting us.)

Head to Heart

Brock had a head to heart moment last Friday while distributing "Why" books to third-graders.

Detective/Happy Bucks

Lance charged Faith $10 for trashcans for her new home.

Several people paid up for not wearing pins.

Melissa is happy that Chuck is doing well after triple bypass surgery. (We're all happy about that!)

Art was happy to award Brock his first Paul Harris.

Greg offered $20 in recognition of the "shining light" Jennifer carries.

Jennifer gave $20 for fellow Clearlake High grad Lance, who she sees as a future District Governor.

Lance concluded with a tale of sleeping through bodily evacuations.

Announcements

Nominees for next year's Board of Directors were announced.

The Pearl Harbor mast is undergoing repairs.

The Crab Feed is set for this Friday at the fairgrounds.

Speaker

Herb spoke on the efforts to expand the Clear Lake Splash In. This year's event is scheduled for April 24 to 27 and will be centered at the Skylark. The splash in goes back to the mid-seventies. Clear Lake offers ideal conditions for the event, such as large size, excellent weather and low elevation. Efforts are underway to develop improved infrastructure to support the event. For further information, checkout clearlakesplashin.com or facebook.com/splashin/. Volunteers are needed to assist with registrations, meals, and more.

Paul Harris

Art awarded Brock his first Paul Harris and Dana received her fifth.

Finley

Beth won, but Jeff walked off with cash.
