Welcome, Pledge and Thought for the Day

President Pam opened with two bells.
Mark led the pledge, telling us to put our right hand over our left heart.

In his Thought for the Day, Tom O. told us to "never mind if the horse is blind, just load the wagon." Some of us still haven't figured out what it meant.

Guests

Mark introduced us to Tawni and Drew who are the acting CEO's of the Lake County Fair. Tawni is a longtime Rotarian and a legend at the Sonoma County Fairgrounds.

Detective

After his inspiring thought for the day, Tom O returned as our detective.

Dana was happy to make a contribution to Lake County and to get a new bathtub.

After April recently told Dana that she admired her purse, Dana bought April the same type of purse. Several members then told Dana that they admired her car.

Beth was happy to finally get her toddler granddaughter to help set up for Lake Event, believing it was high time the child earned her keep. Beth plans to celebrate in Dana's new bathtub.

Dave S. was happy to babysit his granddaughter. No word on whether she'll be working for Lake Event anytime soon.

Several members were happy there were Lake County Fairground officials present.

Speaker

The Reverend Julie Webb is a part-time pastor and part-time "Intuitive Interspecies Communicator." Unlike Dr. Doolittle, who came by it naturally, Pastor Webb is formally trained to talk to animals. She talked a cat into staying indoors until taken outside by its human. (She said anyone can do it, but I've never been able to talk a cat into doing anything.)

Several members asked for advice on how to deal with their pets. Dennis's cat won't stay home; Dave M-W's dog has emotional issues, and Lance's kangaroo won't quit hopping around. Pam's dog is afraid to drive in her car, but Mark suggested this may have more to do with Pam's driving habits than with any issues the dog might have.
