Welcome, Pledge, Thought for the Day

The Pamster called the meeting to order. It was a packed house. Greg led the pledge and gave the Thought for the Day. He encouraged us to slow down, start the day with a smile and keep in touch with friends.

Visitors

Lance introduced Jamie from the Red Cross. Denise and Jerry introduced their better halves, Kurt and Mary Ann. Weston, the head bartender from the Saw Shop, joined us. As did soon to be member Cathy Miller.

Fellowship

President Pam did not allow fellowship.

Detective/Happy Bucks

Lance called out several Rotarians for cavorting down Main Street in a limo last Tuesday. Ruth, Tom, Faith, Mark and Pam all paid-up.

Before the limo incident, Tom and Ruth traveled across the country partying in New Orleans, Memphis and Dayton. This cost Tom $100 Happy Bucks.

Dave M-W was only $50 happy to travel to New Mexico.

Mark put a lampshade over his head in his version of a "one-night stand."

Marie is working on a website for upcoming events in Lakeport. You can find it at www.DiscoverLakeportCA.com.

Lance fined himself for his poor introduction of guest Jamie.

Tom O. correctly guessed Faith is turning 28 and passed the $28 fine onto Detective Lance. Remarkably, Lance did not claim detective immunity and accepted the fine!

Jerry traveled all around Europe, including time spent in a 12-mile-long tunnel. Apparently, Marie was in the same tunnel. No word on where Mary Ann was while this was going on.

Dave M-W called out Alex who had locked her keys in Dave's church then called Dave, Marie, the Fire Department and the entire congregation to reopen the church.

New Member Induction

Cathy Miller is now a Rotarian and immediately pledged $100 towards a Paul Harris fellowship. Welcome Cathy!

Speaker

Russ Cramer is the LARCA Fire Relief Fund treasurer. Since 2015, LARCA (the Lake Area Rotary Club Association) has raised money for emergency fire relief. Through the inspiration of our own Jennifer Strong, LARCA began raising funds even before the devastating fires of 2015 were extinguished. Since then, over 1.6 million dollars has been raised and donated to fire victims. Russ described the heartbreaking stories he hears from fire victims and the amazing gratitude they express for the financial and emotional support LARCA provides.

Anyone wishing to participate in assisting the victims of the Boyles Fire (ask Mark how to pronounce that) can meet at the Clearlake Starbucks this Saturday at 9:00 a.m.

Finley

Laura won the cash. Greg won a prize.
