October 24th Program Recap: Rev. Tom Tewell

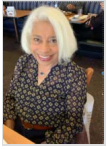

Renowned preacher Tom Tewell spoke on the topic "What Makes a Great Talk." After explaining that a good talk needs 1.) Identification 2.) Inspiration and 3.) Incarnation, he demonstrated his advice by giving a talk on the subject of "Balcony People." Balcony People are the people who lift you up and encourage you as opposed to "basement people" aka "cobweb spotters" who nitpick and drag you down. Cobweb spotters can see a completely clean room but only mention the single tiny cobweb in the far corner of the ceiling. Fortunately, most Rotarians are balcony people. We thank Bill Payne for bringing Rev. Tewell to our stage.

During the meeting, SMHS Principal Dr. Ben Wolf introduced his student of the month, McKenzie Maling. He also shared news of the many awards the school has received recently.
