RECAP of the Sep 12 Program

Our speaker, Judge Robert Bonner, spoke to us about the impact of 911 attacks from the perspective of his decades of experience in the military and the Federal government. Particularly interesting was his analysis of the changes in management of the southern border. We thank Bill Payne for bringing us this timely and thought-provoking program.

Sep 19 Program: RICHARD NILA, SMHS Varsity Football Head Coach

Richard Nila graduated from Pioneer High in Whittier and earned his BA from Whittier College in 1983 and his Masters of Science from Azusa Pacific in 2008. His coaching assignments have been at 8 area high schools and one college (Whittier), before becoming Head JV Coach at San Marino High in 2023. He was promoted to head Varsity coach this summer. He is married, with three children, and resides in Diamond Bar.

TAT (Thursday's Around Town) Sep 26 5:30 pm

We will be dark at lunch but active in the evening.

Be sure to RSVP to Fred Sohl fsohl@sbcglobal.net for next week's evening TAT at the private estate of Richard and Ivy sun. Cost is only $25 to enjoy authentic Oktoberfest foods and beverages arranged by ethnic Germans Fred Sohl and Georg Eittinger. Car pooling recommended.
