Boudreaux spent several years on patrol and then pursued his passion in the K9 sector. Lt. Boudreaux completed multiple training courses and certifications in which he is now the division command over k9. Lt. Boudreaux is also a NNDDA (National Narcotics Detection Dog Association) certified official, of which there are only 4 in the state of Louisiana. Lt.

Boudreaux is on his second dog and is hoping to complete his career in k9.

ROD - Pete Benoit - Coburns

Pete Benoit joined Rotary on June 1st, 2005 at the invitation of Dale Thompson, Sr. He is the manager of Coburn Supply Co., where he has been employed since 1973.

Pete loves spending time with his grandchildren. He enjoys getting on his motorcycle and just riding. Pete is married to Denise. They have two children, Matt and Katie, and five (5) grandchildren.

Pete was glad that Dale asked him to be a part of such a wonderful club. This way he got a chance to compete against David Ohlmeyer and Cal McKey in the Rotary Cast Iron Cook-off and lost!!!! But in the beginning, he stated he didn't know anything about Rotary, but he soon realized from all the good work the club does throughout the community, he had made the right decision.
