Guest Speaker - Mary Cospier Leboeuf - Director Terrebonne Parish Library

Mary Cospier LeBoeuf is director of the Terrebonne Parish Library since 1995, but has been with the library system since 1981. Under her directorship, the Terrebonne Parish Library was awarded Louisiana Library of the year three times, a finalist for the Institute of Museum and Library Services National Medal in 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, and 2018. The library was a national winner of the Public Library Association Upstart Innovation Award. She was awarded the Louisiana Library Association Mid-Career Award and the James J. Buquet Distinguished Service Award from the Terrebonne Foundation for Academic Excellence. She received a publishing award from the Public Library Association for her article, "Ill Winds: Louisiana Public Libraries and Hurricanes."

Mary was elected president of the Louisiana Library Association. She has served on numerous committees and co-chaired seven conferences for the library association. Mary served as a Girl Scout Leader for six years and is a commentator and lector at Maria Immacolata Church. She is a graduate of Leadership Terrebonne and a member of the Nicholls Alumni Association, Public Library Association, life member of Junior Auxiliary, and Friends of the Terrebonne Library.

She received her Master's in Library Science from the University of Southern Mississippi and a Bachelor's in English Literature from Nicholls State University. She is married to David LeBoeuf and has two children.
