Guest Speaker - Bubba Orgeron - Superintendent of Terrebonne Parish Public Schools

Aubrey “Bubba” Orgeron, Jr. is the Superintendent of the Terrebonne Parish School System. His career spans 32 years, beginning as a high school Biology teacher then progressing through the ranks of administration in Lafourche Parish, where he finally served as principal of South Lafourche High School. He was then promoted to Supervisor of Secondary Education in Lafourche Parish before accepting his first position in Terrebonne Parish as the Assistant Superintendent.

Bubba and his wife Shannon have two sons. Trey is a psychiatrist at Ochsner St. Anne, and Mark is a Talented Art teacher in Terrebonne Schools as well as a STHS Baseball Coach. They are so grateful and happy that both of their boys, their wives, Brianna and Andrea, two grandsons, Henry and Rex, and two granddaughters, Rowyn and Cecelia, have also chosen to make their homes here in Houma.

Although many recovery projects are occurring and programs are being initiated, the school system strives to “Keep the Main Thing the Main Thing”, which is student outcomes and achievement.

Bubba loves working and living in Terrebonne Parish. He is a member of the Rotary Club of Houma-Terrebonne and the Houma-Terrebonne Chamber of Commerce. Bubba enjoys golfing, marsh fishing, bush hogging, but mostly spending time with his family and his three dogs, Max, Lena and Levi.
