Guest Speaker - Gene Hebert

Gene Hebert is a Houma native who has shared his passion for decoy carving as both a competitive carver and an instructor for over 50 years. He has won awards at competitions throughout the United States, including the Ward World Championship in Ocean City, Maryland. He is a founding member of the South Louisiana Wildfowl Carvers and board member of the Louisiana Wildfowl Carvers and Collectors Guild, who have a show on October 26 in Mandeville, La. You can see Gene in action each week teaching classes at the Terrebonne Folklife Culture Center on Goode Street.
