Guest Speaker - Anne Picou - Cultural Enhancement Administrator - TPCG

Anne Picou Cultural Enhancement Administrator with Terrebonne Parish Consolidated Government - Quality of Life Department.

Anne Picou has been working for TPCG for 23 years, first in Economic Development, transferred to Planning and Zoning and today in the Quality-of-Life Department. Anne was a past Rotarian in the 1990s and works closely with all the Rotary Clubs in Houma to assist and foster quality of life projects focusing on downtown Houma. Anne was on the Planning a Zoning team for the implementation of the Rotary Centennial Plaza project that opened in October 2024.

Cultural Enrichment Admin. Topics: Downtown events for 2024, projects, update on Rotary Plaza, upcoming Christmas parade and festival scheduled for Sunday, December 8th, 2024.

ROD - Jay Tipton

Rotarian of the Day Name: Jay Tipton

Year you joined Rotary: 2018

Name of Rotarian who proposed you to join the Rotary Club of Houma: Brunnie Bisland

Employer/Company and your position: Executive Director of Terrebonne Place Assisted Living.

Hobbies: Cooking, spending time with family and friends in between bringing kids to their extracurricular activities.

Family information that you would like to share: Jay and his wife Karla have three children. Their oldest daughter, Taylor, is married to her husband, Sam Britt. They also have an eleven-year-old son named Sam, and a six-year-old daughter, Madelyn Rose. They are the proud grandparents of two grandchildren, Beck and Hanson, and looking forward to the addition of their third grandchild, expected to arrive this December.

A brief statement explaining why you accepted the invitation to become a Rotarian: I have always admired organizations that provide community service work. Having been exposed to Rotary functions, I realized that Rotary presents the opportunity to work together with professional, diverse, and service-minded individuals, in an effort to give back and help build a better community.
