Guest Speaker - Rhonda Rogers - Registrar of Voters

I am proud to say I was born and raised right here in Terrebonne Parish. I am a 1995 graduate of HL Bourgeois High School, once a brave, always a brave! After high school, I attended Nicholls State University and graduated with my bachelor's degree in Elementary Education. For 15 years, I taught in the Terrebonne Parish public school system and, in March 2015, was appointed Registrar of Voters for Terrebonne Parish by our council. As of August 2019, I am a Certified Election and Registration Administrator (CERA) graduate through Auburn University.

On a personal note, I am married to my high school sweetheart (22 years this month) and we have 2 beautiful children, Logan 17 and Lauryn 15, who are both students at my alma mater, HL Bourgeois. Logan, a junior in high school, is a baseball player and Lauryn, a freshman, is a cheerleader. You can find me at pep rallies and baseball games when I'm not working. We are parishioners of St. Bernadette Catholic Church in Houma, where my son will be able to spring this spring. My family makes me so proud and is my greatest blessing! I thank God for this life every day!
