Young Leaders -- Call to Lead!

Special Announcement – New Title: YOUNG LEADERS = CALL TO LEAD!

Rotary International has rolled out a new title for club and district chairs for Youth Service or Youth Programs, now called YOUNG LEADERS.

And with that, Rotary International and your District Leadership ask each club to identify a Rotarian to be chairperson of YOUNG LEADERS' PROGRAMS.

Further, it is recommended that each club support the chairperson with a committee of at least three (3) members.

EATON RAPIDS ROTARY SUPPORTS HEART & HANDS

As they have in past years, members of the Rotary Club of Eaton Rapids offered their support to Eaton Rapids' local food pantry, Heart and Hands. Proceeds from Rotary's annual "50-50" raffle were split between the lucky ticket buyer and Heart and Hands. The winning ticket was drawn at Eaton Rapids' annual Christmas tree lighting ceremony on December 7th.

Video provides help for logging on to RI

Ever struggle with logging on to the Rotary International website and finding information there?

We're happy to announce that a new video is now available on our District 6360 website on the "Rotary Foundation Resources" page.

This video was created by District Governor-Nominee Designate Chris Lewis from the Rotary Club of Williamston. In this video, DGND Chris will walk you through the steps to log on to the RI website, and also how to do some of the other basics involved with that site.

The RI website is for Rotarians only, and has loads of resources, tools, and news for Rotarians.

Check it out!
