Broadcaster July 19, 2024

By Timothy E. Joy on Saturday, July 20, 2024

Today's meeting began with President James Gietzen called the meeting to order by ringing the substitute bell (which sounds tinny). Our club bell was on display at the Museum and will reappear next week!

Pres James invited the club to stand and recite the Pledge of Allegiance.

PDG Paul Sincok offered today's meditation. Paul asked that the magic of Rotary be shared locally and globally. That our club's leaders enhance and expand the image of Rotary in Plymouth. And that calm and kindness are in short supply presently but we Rotarians can offer that daily to those that serve us and those that we serve- as we walk the good road, together!

Tim Joy is the Broadcaster representative today. If you are interested in writing the Broadcaster a few times each year, please contact me timjoy663@gmail.com

The microphone was passed around the room as guests were introducing themselves. Mark Kohler Introduced himself as guest of Dave Mueller. Hunter Hall and his wife Elizabeth were guests of Michelle Hall. Peter Arp (hope this is correct) introduced himself. He is joining Plymouth Rotary later in this meeting!

Pres James invited our guests, speakers and club members to enjoy lunch.

Our club members placed an assortment of grooming supplies and lotions on the stage. These were offered to our speakers in support of their efforts!

Our meeting is available for viewing on Facebook! Try it if you can't make the meeting!

During lunch I was introduced to the newest member of the BBQ committee- Mike Moser! Yahoo! The BBQ committee needs 2 more members! Don't hold back!

Pres James called the meeting to order. He sent birthday greetings to: Brandon Bunt, Joyce Johnson, Ed Schulz, Eric Joy and Dale Knab! James offered to sing as Eric Joy was in attendance. Eric objected and offered a bribe to forget the singing!

Music in the Air Friday night!

BBQ Rack Cleaning- August 24. Begins at 8:30 am. Location Plymouth DMS yard. Many hands make light work! Please show up!

New Member Induction- Peter Arp and Denise King (his sponsor) were invited to the podium for Peter's induction into the Plymouth Rotary Club. Pres James inducted Peter. He was welcomed to our Club with a round of applause! Peter works in the automotive industry. He's from Germany-Munich. I believe Peter is married, has 5 children, ages 20 to 18, and is a much I believe. Peter is married, has 3 children, ages 30 to 16, and is a proud grandpa!

Our 100th Anniversary GALA is Saturday July 20 and begins promptly at 6 pm at the Meeting House Grand Ballroom. The event is sold out!

Please sell your BBQ tickets!

Michelle Hall talked about the need for grooming products, especially the products for textured hair prior to introducing our speakers from Leo Rising! Michelle acknowledged that public speaking makes her uncomfortable. Our club offered Michelle an opportunity to practice and grow by introducing our speakers Shawna Ramsey and Felicia Bachman.

Leo Rising's mission is to empower at-risk women and children through beauty and wellness initiatives. Leo Rising is in its second year of serving this mission. At no cost to participants they offer grooming and hygiene products; coaching and empowerment workshops; salon services; and resources to start a career in the beauty industry. Leo Rising is an all-volunteer based non profit promoting a positive self image for at-risk women and children.

Leo Rising's next initiative "Hair We Go" is to acquire an Airstream trailer and convert it into a mobile salon. (Hint- know anyone trying to off an older Airstream?) This will allow them to provide salon and haircut services in access limited shelters and facilities in addition to serving the homeless. They are very passionate about their mission. Please listen to them speak on our Club's Facebook page.

President James called for the 50/50 drawing. Michelle Hall won the 50/50. Second chance was won by Chuck Bares! Congrats!

The meeting concluded with the Four Way Test recitation.
