"DPS: The Next Level"

Dr. David Lawrence, Superintendent, Dayton Public Schools will be speaking about how Dayton Public Schools prepares students for successful futures, including the many career experiences they are afforded and the hands-on career-technical pathways offered at high schools.

Chair of the Day: Karla Garrett Harshaw

This Happened Last Monday...

President Randy opened the Regular Meeting of the membership of the Rotary Club of Dayton and asked that Fran Rickenbach lead the Club with Words to Live By and the Pledge of Allegiance. Bill Nance then provided the obligatory News of the Day. Always topical, insightful, useful...and comical.

Carolyn Rice welcomed guests and visitors to the meeting. These include Tom Carlisle of the Watertown, NY Rotary and former Dayton Rotarian Michelle Riley of The Food Bank.

Secretary Sarah provided the members with a smattering of info on upcoming Club events and committee efforts. Rotary Dines Out at Jays Seafood, November 1; Social Committee event at Gem City Market making mozzarella on November 21; and Coats Plus – Kathy Harper provided an update to the Club that we have raised $3,500 towards the goal of $6,000 so far.

Sarah provided the meeting Rotary Rewards to David Williamson and Carolyn Rice.

Day Tens then commenced.

Katie Neubert gave a Day-20 (coats) to promote We Care Arts Christmas Cards being available at the Goodwill Stores in Oakwood and Kettering.

Mollie Haueser gave a Day-100 (coats) in memory of her late husband (and former Rotarian) "Coach" Dick whose 96th birthday would have been this week. He loved Rotary and especially bowling.

Carolyn Rice gave a Day-50 (coats) in celebration of her trip to Scotland last week stating it was amazing

Shaun Yu gave a Day-10 for the Oregon game

President Randy then asked Bill Nance to lead the Peace Builder interview of Michelle Riley. The Club gained knowledge about the efforts of this fine organization including that they work with many partner food bank entities to deliver food to local families in need. For more information, we were encouraged to visit www.foodbankdayton.org.

Rotarian Karla Garrett Harshaw then provided an introduction to Ms. Makiedah Messam, the newer Dayton area resident and Executive Director of Advocates for Basic Legal Equality, Inc. Ms. Messam mentioned as a youth she participated in the Rotary 4-Way Speech contest in New York City and from then on has always allowed the 4-Way Test to be her guide. Ms. Messam mentioned that ABLE serves in excess of 5,100 low income households from roughly a 36 county area in western/north western Ohio. Ms. Messam challenged the members in attendance to battle corruption of the heart and complacency for the needs in our community. Good advice.
