Guest: Reverend Lynn Meadows-White - The Methodist Home

Rev. Lynn Meadows-White is an ordained minister and serves as Vice-President of Church Relations and Chaplain for The Methodist Home for Children & Youth. The Methodist Home has 5 campuses across South GA, including one in St. Marys. Lynn is headquartered at the Columbus campus of The Methodist Home and serves that campus and the Americus campus as Chaplain. She also serves as Donor Relations Officer for The Methodist Home for 9 counties in west Georgia. A native of St. Simons Island, Lynn grew up at the St. Simons UMC and is the daughter of Barbara Meadows and the late Jim Meadows. Lynn has lived in Columbus since 1991 and served for 31 years as co-pastor of the Pierce Chapel United Methodist Church in Columbus, alongside her husband, Rev. Howard White. They are the proud parents of two adult children, Elizabeth and John Howard. She is very happy to return to St. Simons to share the story of The Methodist Home.

Founded in 1872, The Methodist Home provides care for children and families in need across South Georgia including a continuum of residential care (Children's Homes), community foster homes, specialized treatment programs and counseling services to better serve our community. The Methodist Home is a faith-based organization working to better equip at-risk youth and families for the future. Our mission is to be a model agency that restores childhoods, strengthens families and cultivates a people-building organization.

Keith Olive was our guest at the 11/19 meeting. He discussed his plans to increase attendance and excitement for Coastal College Athletics.

Debbie Britt's daughter got married!

Sue Cansler was awarded the Paul Harris Fellow Pin. She also won the Little Saint Simons Island trip from the RSM raffle.

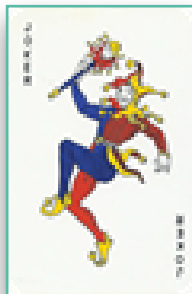

Upcoming Meetings:

Dec 12 - Christmas Party Brunswick Country Club at noon. Please RSVP to Kern.

Jim Kielt told us about his travel by ship to Europe.

Amy Abbott won the 50/50 for $30. Virginia Ellis was helpful to try for the joker card for Amy. However, no joker! The pot continues to grow.

Pasta salad and coleslaw. Ham and cheese wraps with yellow cheddar, lettuce and tomato and cranberry mayo. Chef's choice dessert and Pumpkin Cream Cheese Muffins.

PET CORNER
