Short-term Housing Need for Global Grant Scholar from Nigeria

The Rotary Club of Washington DC is hosting a scholar from Nigeria who will be studying for a Masters in Human Health at Georgetown University. She is arriving on Wednesday, August 14th, and school starts on August 18th. She is looking for temporary, free or very low-cost housing for a few weeks until she can find a permanent place to live. Please reach out to Jennifer Hara at hara128@hotmail.com or 202-262-6010 if you have a room or know of a place she can stay later this month. Thank you.

Happening This Month - August

Baseball Night - Aug 9

Join all seven Rotary Clubs in Frederick County, MD for a night of fun, fireworks, and fellowship at Rotary Night with the Frederick Keys on Friday, August 9th! First pitch is at 7 pm, but gates open at 6 pm so you can grab some dinner and enjoy pre-game festivities. Rotarians, friends, and family are invited to sit together along the first base side for a chance to connect!

There's even more to cheer about! Goodwill Industries of Monocacy Valley will be hosting a donation drive, offering a free hot dog, chips, and a drink for every donation. Plus, the Keys will be sporting special camouflage hats that will be auctioned off after the game, with all proceeds benefiting Platoon 22.

DETAILS: We are confirmed for a picnic with the Jelleff Club Boys & Girls Club on August 12th. We will have a BBQ of hot dogs and hamburgers. We will have a picnic event 10 AM-1 PM or 12 PM depending on how long you would like to volunteer. Youth would participate in activities in rotations by age group then we would have the picnic on Jelleff's field from 12 PM-1 PM.

We will also have activities that our members could sign up for. We would have a field day using some of the sports themes they have had this summer. Our volunteers could help with the following activities while the food cooked:

A game of kickball, volleyball, soccer, wiffle ball and a smoothie activity with youth on healthy eating.

Every year, our Club uniquely makes a grant to the Boys and Girls Club of Greater Washington with a bequest from Rotarian Frank Jelleff, who, as a Rotarian, had helped found a forerunner of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Great Washington.

We hope to see you there!

Yours in Rotary Service,

Marilyn Nevy Cruz, President (2024-2025) and the Board of Directors of the Rotary Foundation of Washington, D.C.

Level 2 focuses on enhancing your leadership skills within Rotary, including project management and ethical leadership. You'll explore strategies for motivating your team and leading successful initiatives.

RLI Level 3: The Rotary Vision

In Level 3, you'll delve into advanced leadership concepts and strategic planning to prepare for significant roles within Rotary. This course encourages you to envision and enact change, driving forward your club's objectives and community impact.

RLI Graduate Course on History

Highlights Include:

- Rotary's Formative Influences
- Rotary's Traditions
- Key Personalities of Rotary
- Your Club's History
- Rotary's Accomplishments
