2) NAME OF THE PROJECT

"A help to walk, a light not fall"

3) OBJECTIVES OF THE PROJECT

Benefiting seniors or people with disabilities (motor, visual, etc.) giving them canes with led light, so they can move easily through dark areas illuminating their path.

4) DESCRIPTION OF THE PROJECT, SHORT AND LONG-TERM BREAK DOWN

Direct users of the emerging-light cane are mostly seniors, who have complications when walking at night or dark areas, raising their chances of accidents even inside their own house, from the moment they stand from the bed to reach the light switch and turning on, even when they have to go down the stairs.

The cane with pop-up light gives the sustenance of a regular cane as a utensil to the beneficiary's hand as well as a second support corresponding to a powerful bright LED light that is attached to the base of the cane, accompanied by a switch that the user will easily locate. The system is accompanied by an interchangeable battery holder that ensures proper operation.

In the short term we will benefit people who previously enlist within our community, but the long-term intention is for the project to reach neighboring communities with a greater impact within our state and district. The project is easy to replicate and canes can be obtained with more than one supplier.

5) EXPLANATION OF THE PROJECT'S SUSTAINABILITY (AS APPLICABLE)

It's very common for people to stop using a cane, whether by medical indications, prosthesis, rehabilitation activities, continuous improvements, or just because users suffer a death, canes are donated to other people. People will be asked to help us by donating the canes when they are no longer required.

6) DIRECT AND INDIRECT BENEFICIARIES BREAKING DOWN ITS VULNERABLE SITUATION, ATTACHING IMAGES.

- The main beneficiaries are adults over 65 years of age or older.
- People of different ages that have trouble walking because of a disability or medical condition.
- Those that don't have a skeletal muscle disability but do for functionality and verticality who should use canes.
- Family members or friends who care for beneficiaries, as they may be more reassured that their patients have visual support for walking.
