2) NAME OF THE PROJECT: UNACH MULTIMEDIA CLASSROOM

3) OBJECTIVES OF THE PROJECT:

The main objective of this project is to know the demands of justice of indigenous communities determined by the specialists that make up the teaching cloister of the Faculty of Law of UNACH, and at the same time, design, transmit and deliver courses adequate to the needs of these peoples that allow a culture of peace and resolve intra- and inter-community conflicts.

This program seeks to meet the various demands for justice, create a culture of peace and conflict resolution in indigenous communities and achieve institutional coverage to these now neglected populations.

4) DESCRIPTION OF THE PROJECT, SHORT AND LONG-TERM BREAK DOWN

The State of Chiapas is an entity in the sury oftheexicano that has the highest rates of marginalization and poverty in Mexico, this is a result of the abandonment that the municipal, local and federal authorities have had this entity. It should be noted that Chiapas has the highest unemployment rate, informal jobs, little social security coverage, and lack of care in medicines and low economic growth.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions.

2. It is essential to ensure that all entries are supported by appropriate documentation and receipts.

3. Regular audits should be conducted to verify the accuracy of the records and identify any discrepancies.

4. The second part of the document outlines the procedures for handling disputes and resolving conflicts.

5. It is important to establish clear communication channels and protocols for addressing any issues that arise.

6. The third part of the document provides a detailed overview of the financial statements and their components.

7. This section includes a breakdown of the income statement, balance sheet, and cash flow statement.

8. The final part of the document concludes with a summary of the key findings and recommendations.

9. It is hoped that this report will provide valuable insights and guidance for the organization's future operations.

10. Thank you for your attention and cooperation throughout the process.

The communities that account for the largest percentage of these indices are communities or municipalities with mostly indigenous populations, which are in accessible with little educational infrastructure, services, communication, as well as lack of internet access.

Alongside this economic delay are the various demands for justice that indigenous communities or peoples demand, such as the attention of basic demands, drinking water, sewerage, medical care among others; demands in compliance with the rule of law and legality, as well as the protection of human rights and the indigenous rights of these peoples.

That is why, in the face of these demands, the lack of resources makes it impossible to be physically with these communities, so it is necessary to use new forms of communication through the network that allow to address the gaps that these justices still suffer in matters of justice still suffer Peoples.

5) EXPLANATION OF THE PROJECT'S SUSTAINABILITY (AS APPLICABLE)

This seeks to patent the strong tradition in higher education that counts the FACULTY of Law of UNACH, which, must be extended to remote places of the Chiapas geography and with needs and demands of justice as they turn out to be the various municipalities and indigenous communities. To achieve the above, it is proposed to create a multimedia classroom, equipped with wireless internet, Smart TV screens of 80 or more inches, as well as video film cameras that allow recording, editing and transmitting, courses to various indigenous communities in legality, justice, indigenous rights, conflict resolution and a culture of peace.

For this reason, the UNACH Faculty of Law proposes the following project which will have an important impact on the resolution of conflict and culture of peace, called: PROMOTION OF JUSTICE IN INDIGENOUS COMMUNITIES: FOR A CULTURE OF PEACE AND RIGHT TEACHING
