1905 1 Club	First gathering, on Thursday evening, 23 February 1905 in Chicago, Illinois, U.S.A. by attorney Paul P. Harris. Young Harris, fresh from a wild five years as a reporter, actor, cowboy, seaman, granite salesman, fruit picker and hotel clerk, five years building a successful law practice, then had an idea. It was regarding observations of success and respect which could come from organizing professional acquaintances. He had given this much thought by the time he and Silvester Schiele walked over to Gus Loehr's office, in Room 711 that cold winter night in 1905, almost 9 years from his arrival in Chicago. Several weeks later, Schiele was elected the first president of Rotary when the meeting was held in his office. Harris suggested several names, one of them being "Rotary." Check out "The Boys of 1905" circa 1996 for a brief history of those first members: https://youtu.be/CNFe3hOUU1s
1906	Members agree to be on "first name" basis. Singing introduced by Harry L. Ruggles. Rotary "Wagon Wheel" emblem adopted, the first of many variations of "wheel emblems" to be used by different clubs, until 1912, when a geared wheel was adopted, this to be follow by authorization of an official emblem (1924), a wheel of six spokes, twenty-four cogs, and a "keyway."
1907	First community service project: a "public comfort station" in Chicago near City Hall for men and women. Harris writes that he was pressured by both the saloon keepers and lady's garment stores not to install such a convenience.

1908 2 Clubs	Second club formed in San Francisco California, U.S.A. by businessman Homer Wood. Paul Harris had asked Chicago Rotarian, Manuel Munoz, who was being sent to San Francisco by his employer, to "spread the word" about Rotary. The timing was perfect. San Francisco businessmen needed a boost. It has been just two years since the devastating earthquake of 1906 which nearly destroyed the city.
1909 7 Clubs	 Homer Wood then organized Oakland, California, #3, Seattle, Washington, USA #4 and Los Angeles, California, USA #5 by the end of 1909. Two days after Christmas, Seattle #4 organized Tacoma, Washington, USA #8. It was an answer to Paul Harris' prayers. Rotary was an idea that could be taken to many cities.

2003	Rotary Global History adds the "First Club" of each Rotary country to the project. Following the convention in Brisbane, the Centennial Bell begins its journey to all of the "First 100 Clubs" of Rotary to conclude that tour at Chicago for the convention in 2005. Rotary Global History combines 12 websites into 1 and surrenders 59 domain names to Rotary International in compliance with newly written domain policy. RI's board officially congratulates the ambitious project. 3 October 2003, the Board of Directors of Rotary International officially recognizes Rotary Global History as the newest fellowship of Rotary, under the name "Rotary Global History"
2005	23 February 2005: The Rotary Club of Chicago and Rotary International celebrated the centennial of the first meeting of four men whose gathering became a worldwide movement. Centennial of the "Room 711" meeting
2005	Rotary International convened the Centennial Convention (19-22 June 2005) in Chicago, Illinois, the birthplace of Rotary. Carolyn E. Jones begins her term as the first woman appointed as trustee of The Rotary Foundation.
2006	Rotary opens extension to China and Cuba. Only four countries remain polio-endemic: Afghanistan, India, Nigeria, and Pakistan. Polio cases worldwide have dropped by 99 percent since 1985.

1990-1991	 Preserve Planet Earth program inspires some 2,000 Rotary-sponsored environmental projects. A re-birth of Paul and Jean Harris' "Friendship Trees" good-will trips of the 30's and 40's results in the planting of hundreds of thousands of trees under the leadership of another "Paul" PRIP Paulo Costa, 1990-1991 Brazil (d2000)

16 Clubs	and brings Rotary with him. He organizes several clubs in Ireland and the UK. He has the full the endorsement of Paul Harris and Ches Perry, until he runs afoul of London Rotarians.
	 First Rotary convention was held in Chicago, 15-17 August, with sixteen clubs in Rotary. The National Association of Rotary Clubs was formed. Paul Harris was elected president of the Association and served two terms. Chesley R. Perry began 32 years of service as Secretary, then General Secretary of Rotary from 1910-1942. Rotary "principles" adopted in form of five objectives.
	Rotary becomes "international" on 3 November 1910 with the "organization" of Rotary Club of Winnipeg , Canada. Winnipeg then was chartered as Club #35 on 13 April 1912 prior to the Duluth, Minnesota USA convention when Rotary became the International Association of Rotary Clubs.
	 Paul becomes a founding member of the Prairie Club of Chicago. On one of the club's early hikes a beautiful young woman from Edinburgh, Scotland points out a tear in his jacket and offers to fix it. Jean Thomson and Paul Harris were married several months later. In two years he bought her a large home and they named their home after a road in Edinburgh, "Comely Bank." There they started their lifelong friendship garden.

1911 31 Clubs	The Rotary Convention was held in Portland. 15 new clubs had joined the ranks of NARC. Many others were organized and "doing" business as those in the United Kingdom were. By Rotary's 25th anniversary, Rotary had spread rapidly across the Atlantic to Ireland, Great Britain and Western Europe. Clubs were organized in Dublin and Belfast Ireland, and London and Manchester England. These were followed in 1912 by clubs in Glasgow and Edinburgh. Harry Lauder was one among many Britons who embraced Rotary in those early days. As one of the world's most popular entertainers through the first half of the century, Lauder joined the Rotary Club of Glasgow in 1914. A year later he wrote, "Rotary is going to be the greatest and grandest cooperative institution ever founded". The National Rotarian magazine was born with General Secretary Ches Perry as the editor. 22 August 1911, Rotarian Frank Collins, introduced what was to become "Service above Self" to Rotary. At the same convention, "He Profits Most Who Serves Best" was introduced to the convention. This was the work of Arthur "Fred" Sheldon, teacher of business, creator of Rotary's "classification system," author of one of our mottos. One of Rotary's most forward "Early Leaders." At the 1911 convention in Portland, the Rotary Club of Seattle proposes a platform that becomes the Rotary platform. Today's platform is much the same.

1960	Chesley Reynolds Perry , secretary of Rotary 1910-1942 dies 21 February 1960. Called the "Builder of Rotary" by founder Paul Harris. <small>SNOW lay ankle deep on the streets of Chicago last Sunday evening, and small flicks whirled in the air. Thus, as the man from the firehouse apartment at 2418 North Lake Shore Drive left his door to mail some letters which he had written during the quiet afternoon, his wife cautioned: "Now, don't you fall." A few minutes later he returned home. "Well, Puzzy," he said, "you are I didn't fall." And having said so, he slumped to the floor and was dead. So ended the life of Chesley Reynolds Perry—Chicagoan, U. S. American, internationalist, and individualist, whose legacy as Rotary was deeper than that of any other man occupying only its Founder, who around 1905 "the builder of Rotary International."</small>
