2017 District Training Assembly

ROTARY:
MAKING A DIFFERENCE

DISTRICT TRAINING ASSEMBLY

APRIL 22

Reynolds High School, Troutdale, Oregon

Hello Rotarian Friends.

I would like to invite all Rotarians, Rotaractors, and Interactors to our 2017 District Training Assembly. With over sixty sessions offered, there is something for everyone, from the newest member, to the seasoned Rotarian taking on a new role, to those who just want to keep their skills sharp or learn something new. We have invited knowledgeable and enthusiastic members to come and share their skills and expertise with you, and to give you opportunities to share your wisdom and best practices with each other. Event brochures will be available following PETS and registration opens online February 22.

District Governor
2017-18
Renee Campbell

Rotary International
Director Elect
John Matthews

We have a special guest this year. Our Rotary International Director-Elect will be coming to join us in our general session. John Matthews is a member of the Rotary Club of Mercer Island, Washington. He served as District Governor for District 5030 in 2010-11 and has been selected to serve as the Rotary International Director for Zones 25/26 for the years 2017-19.

John has completed two successful careers: the first with the U.S. Navy for 20 years, and the second as a Senior Vice President with Costco Wholesale, with responsibilities for all Human Resource and Risk Management functions. He has been active in both corporate and community boards.

John and his wife, Rotarian Mary Ellen, have been active supporters of the Rotary Foundation, travelling internationally for grant projects and polio immunization. They believe some of the greatest gifts that Rotary brings to the world are our Peace Programs and the scholars that graduate from them. They have established the John and Mary Ellen Matthews
