Chris called the meeting to order at 12:30

Denise provided the moment:

“Around here we don’t look backwards for very long. We keep looking forward. Opening up new doors and doing new things because we are curious and curiosity keeps leading us down new paths.”

Walt Disney

We inducted a new member Marie Winters with the customary line of handshakes and hugs.

Bob Zinni introduced his guest Brian Cox who is a counselor at Piner High.

Ken Prouty's son in law Myron Berg was also introduced.

Chris Parr-Feldman introduced her guest, Jenn Delrosario from Roseland Collegiate Prep Middle and Junior High School.

Bob Zinni introduced Piner High Students of the month for January. They were Samantha Stolte And Alex T.

Samantha plays soccer and is planning on heading to a four year university to discover her path. She is leaning towards CSU Monterey Bay. She is interested in the cinematic arts and production program offered there. She is excited to make new friends and possibly play some intramural soccer.

Alex is curious to learn all that he can. He's been very active in school with sports and leadership roles. He loves helping people. Wants to major in psychology and wants to work with children. He plans on studying abroad to learn spanish. Long term he wants to go to med school and become an emergency room doctor.

Next David M. thanked everybody who helped with the crab feed. There is a crab feed wrap up meeting at his house for anyone who would like to attend. March 11th at 3pm.

He mentioned $110,000 gross with $21,000 going to Simply Strings.

Denise C. had the winning raffle ticket at the crab feed and won the diamond necklace.

The Press Democrat ran a piece in the Sunday paper about the crab feed.

Harry spun and won $5.

Marv had the opportunity to grab the black marble. He asked Chris to do it for him and she pulled the black marble. Marv donated the $250 to the club.

Denise introduced our guest speaker. Jennielynn Holmes of Catholic Charities of the Diocese Of Santa Rosa.

Her talk was centered around the homeless issue in Sonoma County.
