

The Four Way Test

Is it the TRUTH?

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

Will it build GOODWILL and
BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

This Week's Program

Program for July 2, 2015

Presenter: Steve Chartrand, Goodwill of Southern NV President & CEO and John Grady, Vice President of the Board of Directors for Goodwill

Program: What is happening at the Goodwill today.

Goodwill of Southern Nevada, Inc. is a non-profit organization whose mission is to provide education, employment and training for people with disabilities and other barriers to employment, and to maximize the quality of life for each individual served.

Goodwill is an innovative and sustainable social enterprise that turns donations of gently used goods into new jobs and new careers for the members of our local community. We provide employment, job training and other community-based programs for people with disabilities, those who lack education or job experience, and clients facing other challenges to finding employment.

At Goodwill, we believe that work creates the economic energy that builds strong families and strong communities. Work helps build self-confidence, friendships and independence. Everyone deserves a chance to have those things in life. Goodwill provides that chance.

Rotary Roundup

June 25, 2015

By: Stephen Tucker & Jim Paxton

The usual Thursday morning Rotary Club of Green Valley (RCGV) meeting at Wild Horse was pre-empted by an evening with families and friends, gathering to witness the traditional turnover of the Club's 2014-2015 officers, in exchange for new Officers and Board of Directors for the 2015-2016, July-June Rotary year.

Rotary Club of Green Valley meets 7:00 a.m. Thursdays at
Wild Horse Golf Club

Following a social hour, RCGV's Debunking began with the Pledge of Allegiance, led by future Rotarian Caroline Ewing, which was followed by an introduction of a multitude of guests.

Our own District 5300 Governor (DG) Larry Skaggs and First Lady Vicki appropriately filled the dignitary spots. Larry provided positive comments about the District and RCGV's contributions during the present year. Next, new RCGV member Delinda Crampton provided an inspirational "Rotary Moment."

Darcy Dougherty updated the Club on the upcoming October Gala which she reported is progressing nicely.

After an excellent dinner, our outgoing and clearly worn out President Jack Ewing took over the podium. He went over a list of goals for the Club that he planned a year ago. The Club achieved a Rotary International Presidential Citation, and has reached Premier Club with Ignite status. RCGV had positive membership growth. We fulfilled our commitments to the Rotary Foundation. We completed our projects and expanded our relationships. We accomplished all these things while checking off on the final goal of having fun along the way!

Jack said he had been promised, prior to accepting the presidency, that "the club would run itself." He now believes that this could not be further from the truth. Jack recalled that what really happens is that the load is shared by many. To emphasize his point, Jack listed many members' contributions, including Caroline Orzes at the greeters table, Shelia Callum for many things, Jim Paxton for always getting out an excellent Bulletin, Darcy Dougherty for accomplishing a great presence with social media and with the Gala, and Jerry Holinski for stepping up to fill the crucial programs spot. Jack also cited Susan Johnson for chairing RCGV's Rotary International Foundation and Nevada Rotary Foundation, and he praised Duane Frizell for being a very active president-elect, and Christine Smith's accomplishments, especially on grants, Mike Soden was praised for many jobs for the Club and District, including meeting set-up and takedown, and Jay Larsen was lauded as secretary par excellence. Lauren Robydek was praised for her work as treasurer, organizer, and so much more.

Jack simply would not give up the podium without revealing that the Green Valley Rotarian of the Year Award goes to Mike Soden! After droning on for quite a while, trying to remember everything Mike does for Rotary, Jack awarded Mike a well-deserved Paul Harris Fellow (PHF) upgrade, taking him to PHF plus four.

Membership Chair Jerry Holinski invited DG Larry forward to induct Amanda Connor as a member. Her sponsor Christine Smith presented her with a Rotary pin. DG Larry welcomed Amanda as the newest member of the world's oldest service club with 1.2 million members, 34,000 clubs in over 200 countries!

DG Larry then swore in Duane as the RCGV President, along with the incoming officers and Board of Directors. Many Board members are continuing in service. The venerable Dave Jochman is new on the Board, and our new President Elect is Bob Hulshouser.

A highlight of the evening was Duane's debunking of Jack with "Jack's Song." Many of us witnessed Duane's proficiency with a banjo for the first time. He is really good! The song, with custom lyrics to tune of the Beverly Hillbillies, was a hoot. It is hoped that the words will be re-printed here in the future; they were quite funny. Duane then ended an excellent party with recognition of his lovely wife Jenilyn and a challenge to all of us to "give the gift of service" by meeting this year's R.I. President's theme to "Be A Gift To The World." Duane pledged he would be on time for all meetings and said his first goal as president was, above all, "to do no harm."

RCGV's Debunking party ended after providing an enjoyable experience for all.
