Rotary Club Green Valley Program For March 2, 2017

Program: Rotaplast Missions

Presenters: Dr. Angelo Capozzi

In May, Rotary will sponsor a medical mission to Lima, Peru, to treat youngsters with cleft palates. Dr. Capozzi is a veteran of two past Rotaplast Missions, one in 1912 to Guatemala and last October when he went to Sylhet, Bangladesh. It is expected that he will be the medical director of this May's mission.

Rotary Recap: February 23, 2017 Paxton

By: Jim

Rotary Club Green Valley's (RCGV) weekly meeting exemplified the Club's devotion to the community's youth, as the meeting was held in the Silverado College Preparatory and Career Technical High School Library. RCGV President Bob Hulshouser called the meeting to order, following food and fellowship enjoyed by members and guests with the school's jazz band creating a warm, melodic setting. Membership Chair Debbie Mitsch explained that no welcoming table had been set up for registration of guests, but added that many school administrators, staff and students were present and unannounced. Debbie did introduce Assistant Principal in Charge of Special Programs Dr. Marbella Alfonso. Debbie also introduced Librarian and Interact Advisor Helen Wolcott, and visitors Ron Goldberg and Bob Dougherty. Jeff Lance, the Jazz Band Instructor was also recognized.

Dr. Alfonso informed the group that Silverado is in a transition phase, following the promotion of past principal and Rotary Friend Bob Mars. A new female principal, Jaime D. Jaime Ditto, will be replacing Mars. Dr. Alfonso introduced other new Silverado administrators.

An announcement was made by Past District Governor Larry Skaggs, who presented a $250 check to Jon Hoolihan. Jon won the Fremont Club's Superbowl Contest.

Congrats Jon! Past President Mike Pederson was called to the podium to present the Silverado High School Student of the Month Loey Ana. Loey has a 4.17 weighted grade Silverado High School Student of the Month, Jovy Ana. Jovy has a 4.17 weighted grade point average, and she is currently ranked number 30 in her class of 551.

Mike quoted Jovy's English Honors teacher, Ms Gerken, who said "When I think of a completely dedicated student who is a lovely person, I think of Jovy. Jovy brings laser focus to her work in Senior Honors English, just as she brings a gracious presence to the classroom." Jovy has been a member of the Skyhawk Band program for four years. She has participated in the Wind Symphony and the Marching Band. Jovy plans to attend UNLV and desires to f earn a degree in chemistry and make a significant difference in the pharmacy field.

Following the presentation of her Student of the Month Plaque and a Barnes and Noble Gift Certificate, Jovy said that she is honored to be selected student of the month, and Jovy thanked her mother and her teachers "for giving me a nice ride."

The Silverado Interact Club is a winner of the Rotary International Presidential Award. Interact played a big role in RCGV's Souperbowl of Caring Food Drive, and the the club brings Christmas to 800- low income youngsters at Gene Ward Elementary School each year. Interact Advisor Wolcott returned to the microphone to introduce Interact President Lilly Bellrt, who told the Club that Silverado Interact believes in doing things "In a nice way. This year we wanted to make a difference in the world through an international program, so we raised money to buy a Shelter Box. " The Shelter Box will house five during disaster relief. Lilly introduced the Interact officers who each shared facts about their Club.

Silverado Interact is currently involved with the beautification of a nearby park. Interact members will be going to elementary schools during Nevada Reading Week next week and will be reading to elementary school students.

"Someday we want to do what you in Rotary are doing,. Interact helps us to be better people in the world, and Interact gives us ways to make the world better," Lilly concluded.

President Bob stepped to the microphone holding a check in his hand. He explained that RCGV has agreed to fund the Library signage. The check for $1,500 will improve the outdoor sign above the library. Librarian Wolcott happily accepted the RCGV check. The meeting was dismissed by President Bob after the check was presented and Rotarians, Silverado students, and staff enjoyed one another for a few more minutes.

Green Valley High Musicians Preform Beautifully to Sweep Local Dan Stover Competition, Percussionist Will Advance

Six excellent senior High Henderson musicians competed last week in the local Dan Stover Music Competition. Two Green Valley High School members were judged winner and runner up by Rotarian Judges, Mike Peterson and Delinda Crampton and Las Vegas Philharmonic Violinist Patricia Harrell.

The runner up was violinist Kelsea Au, who played the difficult Paganini Caprice #24. Violinist Harrell commented that Au played "with great skill and beautiful interpretation."

GVHS Percussionist Caroline Thomas was the competition winner, and she will advance with her marimba to the regional completion in April, competing against players from throughout Southern Nevada.. Judge Delinda Crampton praised Caroline, on her score sheet, "beautiful use of expression and tempo. I enjoyed seeing you and how you felt the music while you played,. I loved the musical journey you took us on and your interpretation."

A cash prize of $50 was awarded to Au and $100 was awarded to Thomas. Thomas hopes to attend UNLV and Au is undecided, but she is considering the renown University of Indiana. music school.
