Rotary Recap, March 23, 2017

By: Stephen Tucker & Jim Paxton

Rotary Club Green Valley (RCGV) President Bob Hulshouser opened the Club's meeting with a quote of the day. Steve Tucker led us in the Pledge of Allegiance to our flag. Debbie Mitsch introduced Stamen Tassev, a private and government economist, as well as a Rotarian and past president of the Rotary Club of Sofia, Bulgaria. Stamen is here to visit his grandchildren. Club flags were exchanged; this no doubt being the first addition to our banner collection from Bulgaria!

Our own Past District Governor Larry Skaggs then educated us on the subjects of District Assemblies and Conferences. The April 22 Apple Valley Assembly will soon be upon us, The Assembly is open to all incoming officers and to those who have an interest in Rotary leadership opportunities for the future. Now is the time for members to plan car pools to this free event.

Ted Durant says our Teacher mini-grant checks went into the mail last week. Delinda Crampton told us that exchange student Jasmine is doing fine and will be further exposed to American culture by attending Monster Jam in the near future. The Robert Taylor Elementary school Bike Rodeo went off well with the assistance of members from our new Rotaract Club, despite Chair Duane Frizell being under the weather. Christine Smith is taking applications for RYLA from Silverado and Green Valley High students.

Judge Susan Johnson reported that our 2016-17 Foundation goals have almost been met. We need only $650 more to meet all our Foundation pledges and goals. Bob Dworkin is working on our proposed Bike Ride fundraiser. Jim Frey tells us our student entry in the District 4-Way Test competition was victorious in the area run-off and she will compete at the District Conference finals.

Mike Peterson took over to host Trivia and Happy Dollars. Larry Skaggs was exempted for knowing about the entrepreneurial achievements of Harley-Davidson. Larry Bettis, Mike Sowden and Dave McGovern suffered through the Club's singing Happy Birthday in their honor. Don Havens was glad that Ted Durant will finally be plaster-free after nine weeks in his leg cast. The Johnsons have just returned from a trip to Thailand. Christin Christine Smith contributed a buck for the UNLV School of Law rising 16 spots in national rankings. Darcy Dougherty asks us to see her if we want Rotary logos or apparel. Jim Frey will have three sons and seven grandsons visiting soon. President Bob was delighted to have a visiting Rotarian all the way from Bulgaria.

Gerry Holinski introduced this morning's speaker, Melissa Clipper. Melissa heads the local Henderson-Boulder City Chapter of Blue Star Mothers of America, a charitable support organization for mothers of armed service members and veterans. Melissa gave us some excellent handouts chronicling the good works and accomplishments of Blue Star since their founding in 1942. Their current push is for donations to Wreaths Across America Day ($16/wreath). The local celebration will be at the Southern Nevada Veterans Memorial Cemetery Saturday, December 16. More information can be found at the website www.bluestarmothers.org. Click on "find a chapter" then "Nevada" and "NV4."

Our usual drawing and recitation of "The Four -Way Test of Things We Say and Do" concluded the meeting.
