Rotary Club Green Valley (RCGV) President Bob Hulshouser called the regular Club meeting to order, following the customary fellowship and buffet line at the WildHorse Golf Club Thursday morning. Following the Pledge-of-Allegiance to the Flag and Bob's quote of the day, Membership Chair Debbie Mitsch introduced the morning's guests including Mark Verville and Jim Alanson, JJ and Carly Todd accompanied by their mother and our newest member, Julie Todd. Our friend from Berlin, Arno Buchholz, was also visiting.

June, recently retired from Valley State, in San Fernando, CA. She had been looking for a community organization to join in order to give service. She joined the recent RCGV Bike Rodeo service project, and we look forward to her future contributions to our club.

Past President Mike Peterson recognized Judy Lloyd's fourth anniversary and Mike Soden's fourteenth anniversary with Rotary. The club also recognized Jim Paxton's birthday by singing a stirring rendition of Happy Birthday. Next, Mike P. informed the Club that it was Epitaph Day and the day's Trivia was to recognize famous quotes, including "The Best is Yet to Come," attributed to Frank Sinatra, and "There Goes the Neighborhood," attributed to Rodney Dangerfield. Those who arrived late were called to spin the fine wheel as punishment!.

Our own Terry Perkins presented the day's program on conflict management. Conflict occurs naturally in many, if not most of our interpersonal relationships, both at home and at work. The first step to managing conflict is to recognize the true source of the conflict. Terry shared four types of conflict: topical, control/power, identity, and procedural. Terry helped the group to recognize how each of those types of conflict manifest and how easy it is to misidentify their origins and specific categories. Many times, we do not recognize what the source of conflict is, thereby frustrating our efforts to manage the problem and to resolve the conflict. There are techniques to properly identify conflict. These include: active listening, paraphrasing, and perception checking. By implementing these techniques, we can better manage and resolve conflicts. We all appreciated Terry's dynamic presentation and came away better informed of this relevant issue and on how to better resolve our conflicts.

The raffle ticket belonging to Arno Buchholz was drawn and the pot remains intact, as Arno drew a ten from the deck. Pres Bob adjourned the meeting at 8:20 a.m.

Ten Reasons Why You Should Attend District Conference

1. Leadership Breakout - Start the conference at the leadership breakout by joining the round table discussions. Learn about the leadership positions available at the District level or join the conversations that will help shape the District.
2. International Projects Breakout - Come interact and see your fellow Rotarians at work. This breakout will make you laugh, cry, and see the direct impact one individual can have in the world.
3. Celebrate 100 years of Rotary Foundation - We begin the celebration at the Foundation breakout session and continue it at dinner on Friday evening. Your generosity and gifts have shaped and changed the world. Help us celebrate your Foundation's success!
4. 4-Way Test Speech Competition and Dan Stover Music Competition - During our Saturday meals we will be honored with the presence of our future leaders as the top students across our district compete in the speech competition and the music competition. Let us fill the room and show them the support we have for their efforts.
5. Membership, PR, Youth, Vocational & Community Service - Join us Saturday at our breakout sessions to learn more about the work our district has done in these areas. Join the interactive discussions and share your best practices.

6. Governor Transition - Join us Saturday evening as we transition Governors in traditional rotary style.
7. Award winning and world acclaimed speaker - Saturday night learn how Rotary impacted the life of a young girl helping shape her future and putting her on a path to an Olympic medal and the White House.
8. Network - In between the excitement of the breakout sessions and the celebrations, meet with old friends and do not forget to make new ones! District conference is a great place to network and share ideas.
9. Awards - The points have been calculated and the projects are all awe inspiring. The awards on Saturday afternoon help move us to the coveted Governor Bell awards on Sunday morning.
10. Hospitality Suites - Let's not forget the hospitality suites. We have eight hospitality suites all lined up and ready to go. Our DJ and performers will help keep the celebration going as we indulge in the evening fun and hospitality.

There is something for everyone. Come for the networking, come for the awards, come to celebrate 100 years of Foundation giving. Palm Springs May 19-21 is the place to be!
