Program Chair Gerry Holinski was called on to introduce program speaker George Gilbert. George has had a long successful comedy career on television, in Las Vegas show rooms, and night clubs around the country. George's message is that humor can reduce pain for the sick and make business more successful. George's recently published book "Take Two Laughs and Call Me in the Morning." was inspired by his wife's use of humor to defeat her pancreatic cancer.

"Use laughter to get through tough times. Laughter stimulates endorphins, which reduce pain. Patch Adams was famous for bringing humor and laughter into hospital rooms to reduce pain. Laughter worked for my wife Dory, getting her through the pain of pancreatic cancer and a kidney transplant"

Gilbert speaks to many business people, encouraging them to use humor in their work. "Laughter is positive for businesses and individuals. It is easy to laugh in good times; it is critical in bad times." he said.

After concluding his inspirational program, George pulled the raffle ticket belonging to Greg Bruce. Greg was hoping to draw the joker to win the $352, but instead drew a nine. President Bob adjourned the meeting at 8:15 a.m. following the Club's reciting the Four Way Test.
