Trivia, Fines, Bucks and Dollars

PP Mike Petersen presented the Trivia of the Week. Trivia-of-the-week was all about pianos for National Piano Month, and honey for National Honey Month. PDG Larry Skaggs won immunity with his answer of there being 88 keys on a piano. The group also learned that honey never spoils.

There were a record number of people at the fine wheel.

George Baggott had a happy buck for Dave Jochman being at his table.

Ted Durant had a happy buck for being singled out and honored for his work as a volunteer with the USO in their newsletter.

Mark Roy had a happy buck for his son-in-law's retirement ceremony that he was able to attend back east.

Larry Flashberg had a happy buck and dammit dollar for enrolling as a substitute teacher, being placed in auto-shop, and then having a C- experience.

Dave Jochman had a happy buck for George Baggott. He also announced he's vertical, still in the game. He attended a marine's funeral and shared his thoughts with the group. And he called out Bob Hulshouser for not wearing his pin to an event.

Linda Lundgren had a happy buck for her birthday, for Capt Dave Lewis saying that our club is not fussy, for Greg Bruce and his comedy show, and for falling in the doctor's office and not getting seriously injured. Happy Birthday, Linda!

Darcy Dougherty had a happy buck for Linda's birthday; she's excited about the arrival of Fall; and she said it was nice to be with everyone.

Gerry Holinski had a happy buck for the whip cream and candy at the buffet table from the chef - he didn't know what that was about but he was happy. And he was happy about the mystery photo placed at the end of the buffet station. The photo was of Mark Roy.

Art Macarios had a happy buck for the University of Buffalo. He also had a happy buck for his dental alma mater being rated 9th in the country and 11th in the world, but had a dammit dollar because he probably couldn't get in to the school today.

Larry Skaggs had a happy buck for his vacation with Vikki in Fiji, but let the group know that Vikki's father passed away while they were on vacation.

Bob Hulshouser had a happy buck for the Interact Clubs finally coming together, and for Larry Flashberg joining the team.

Jim Frey went to Missoula and had a happy buck because he avoided having to go to Reno. He also announced some volunteer dates for the club at Opportunity Village in December. He will have the specifics soon!

Christine Smith had a happy buck for the Special Prosecutor that is her former student that was recognized on TV. She had a happy buck for a former Boyd grad student that came from a rough life and just broke ground on his new law firm. She also had a happy buck for Linda's birthday.

Terry Perkins oldest son got promoted, so he had a happy buck for him. He also reminded everyone to be kind to customer service agents on travel sites, because his daughter-in-law had a rough call and thinks everyone could use a reminder to be kinder.

Jackie Carroll had a happy buck for pens and paper since the computer failed her at check-in.

Rotary Foundation Chair Susan Johnson had a happy buck for Mark Bailus visiting. She also had a happy buck for an event in Caliente, where she was able to give gifts to all the children in the area. She was also able to visit the school for juvenile offenders.

Mark Bailus had a happy buck for being able to visit the club, and he would like to visit more now that he has more room in his schedule.

Bob Dworkin had his fine ready, and a happy buck for getting younger when you fly back from the Fiji.

Delinda Crampton had a happy buck for her son who did well in his flag football game.

Mike Denley had a happy buck for Linda's birthday and because he and Lorraine found a good home and they will be moving soon.

Lora Evans had a happy/dammit dollar for being able to see her family at her uncle's funeral, but then finding out that her aunt died a few days later.

Janet Pancoast had a happy buck for her sister's 69th birthday. She was able to have fun in Salt Lake City. She had a dammit dollar because her water heater broke.

Program

Club Assembly was the program of the day!

President Janet Pancoast started the group off with an overview of club information. The soccer tournament, Bike Rodeo, Souper Bowl of Caring, and Field of Honor are approved and on the calendar. She encouraged everyone to sign up to attend the District Conference in Anaheim. She also went over some of our Club goals for the year, encouraged us to have more Rotary Fellowship Participation, make sure we put Rotary in our will/trust, and to apply for service projects with the proper forms if we would like the club to get involved in a project.

Terry Perkins went over the budgets. It was very informative. To create a better paper trail, even "budgeted" service activities need to be submitted for approval to both the GVRC Board and the Rotary Foundation Board. This includes the schools that we give money too for their service projects.

Bob Hulshouser gave an update of the Interact Clubs. They were slow to start, but now have some movement. Faculty are being or have been assigned to the clubs, and everything is coming together.

Mark Roy, Ted Durant, and Lora Evans updated the group on Field of Honor and PR/Social Media. The Field of Honor is coming along, and the committee is organizing logistics and getting the paperwork in order. More information on sponsorships will be available soon. Lora Evans encouraged that whomever is on Facebook should like and follow the Club page, in addition to liking the posts.

Adjournment

Art Macarios won $10 in the raffle. The pot was at $80. He then led the group in recitation of the Four-Way Test of the Things We Think, Say or Do.

President Janet Pancoast adjourned the meeting at 8:18 a.m.
