Presentation

PP Mike Peterson introduced the Student-of-the-Month, Antonia Librizzi from Green Valley High School. Antonia exemplifies the characteristics of a model student and currently is ranked number one in her class with a 4.8 weighted GPA. She is an active member of the theatre department and is currently starring as Mrs. Phelps in the school's production of Matilda: the Musical. Antonia is involved in several community service organizations such as National Honor Society, Las Vegas Sun Youth Forum, C.H.A.N.C.E., and Teens Making a Difference.

Antonia plans to attend UNLV and to major in psychology with the ambition of becoming a criminal psychologist.

Green Valley High School and RCGV are extremely proud of Antonia and wish her much success in her future endeavors.

Trivia, Fines, Bucks and Dollars

PP Mike Peterson, our clever Trivia and Fine Master, had a multi-way tie for his question about New Year's Resolutions. The tie was broken and Brad Marx won fine immunity.

PP Mike announced that there is one member birthday in January. The group sang their version of Happy Birthday to Bob Dworkin. He also congratulated Debbie Mitsch for her 25th year in Rotary (4th year with RCGV) as well as Lora Evans one year and his own twelfth year with the club. Several wedding anniversaries were noted: the Frey's, the Jochman's, the Johnson's and the Perkin's. Congratulations!

All late comers and those without their Rotary pin were called forward to spin the wheel, much to the Fine Master's chagrin he was fined twice due to spins.

George Baggott shared that Jon Hoolihan now has a blood infection and his homecoming has been delayed. He has contact information for Jon.

Christine Smith was decked out in Knights regalia for the night's White Out. Also, Go Rebels!

Mark Roy had a happy buck for heat!

Darcy Dougherty was happy to be back after her leg infection; was happy the doctors cleared her to visit family during the holidays; and that she received her White elephant gift from the Holiday Party. Darcy asked PP Mike to choose from a pie of papers Christine Smith won a Knights jacket!

Greg Bruce was glad to see his old friend, Jeff Rogers, and shared that Improv will be happening a week from Saturday.

PP Bob Hulshouser had a buck for Antonia and predicted her future successes; had a buck for the Double Doink and the Bears missed field goal.

PP Jim Frey mentioned the Four-Way Speech Contest on March 7th; had a buck for the Rebels great start; and for our student, Antonia going to UNLV.

Dave Jochman was vertical; had a buck for his daughter who shot expert level at the shooting range; for his 8th wedding anniversary; for the Bears loss; had a dammit dollar for the Hoosiers beating the Illini, and pointed out the wheresgeorge.com "Baggott locator".

Terry Perkins had a happy buck for his 43rd wedding anniversary and had a dammit dollar for the passing of his son's childhood friend from a brain tumor and for the young man's family.

Shyloh Wehner welcomed Darcy back and congratulated Ted Durant on the successes he has had with Field of Honor sponsorships.

Alex Grodzinsky wished everyone a Happy New Year; was happy to be back and had a happy buck for our student, Antonia.

Linda Lee Lundgren had a buck for our student and one for the new car that Santa brought her!

PP Mike Peterson's company is hosting a recruiting event for woman. DO you know anyone who may be interested?

Debbie Mitsch had a buck for our student and one for the gift that PP Bob Hulshouser delivered to her from a past event.

Judy Lloyd wished everyone a Happy New Year and had a happy buck for Antonia!

PDG Larry Skaggs noted that picking a scab is not healthy, PP Bob! He had a dollar for the guy he met at the Rose Parade from a club in a small town in Ohio whose club had their inaugural year of the Field of Honor, too. They sold ALL 800 of their flags!

Julie Todd had a happy Yen, wishing everyone a Happy New Year; a dollar for her dead car; and a happy buck for Antonia.

Jim Allanson had a happy buck for our student-of-the-month, Antonia from GVHS. Go Gators!

President Janet Pancoast had a happy buck for the MexiCali service trip where she helped paint a school for the hearing impaired; she had a buck for Ted Durant's work garnering sponsorships for the Field of Honor. She noted that it is time to start gearing up for the event. She also had a buck for Antonia; a dammit dollar for Jon Hoolihan with well-wishes; and a buck for Lora Evans one year anniversary and how she has jumped in with both feet! Thank you, Lora!

Program

Jeff Rogers, BrainStorm Success

Gerry Holinski introduced Jeff Rogers, a no-nonsense coach, facilitator, trainer, consultant, and founder of BrainStorm, He spoke on How to finally achieve your most challenging goals in 2019.

Jeff challenged the group to move forward by clearly defining and aligning our visions with the simple healthy actions and behaviors necessary to create an extraordinary life. Thank you, Jeff, for helping us focus our efforts for a happy new year! President Janet presented Jeff with a laser pen and our appreciation.

Adjournment

The Raffle pot was $395. Greg Bruce was the lucky winner and did the right thing by pulling a 4 from the pack. He then led the group in the 4-Way Test.

President Janet Pancoast adjourned the meeting at 8:14 a.m.

Rotary Community Corps

A Rotary Community Corps is a group of people who share our commitment to changing the world through service projects. Members plan and carry out projects in their communities and support local Rotary club projects but are not members of a Rotary club.

There are more than 8,500 corps in over 90 countries. Rotary Community Corps are active everywhere Rotary is present: in urban and rural areas, and in both developed and developing countries.

Shown here are the Rotary Community Corps of Parker, Colorado, providing a powerful growth and enrichment experience for the teens and adults with special needs who belong to it.
