Trivia, Fines, Bucks and Dollars

PP Mike Peterson, Trivia Master Extraordinaire, shared ♦ Follow Your Heart with Art Day ♦ trivia. George Baggott won immunity with his knowledge about the Last Supper painting in Milan, Italy. Jesus ♦ feet were accidentally eliminated when a doorway was added in 1652.

All late-comers were called forward to spin the wheel. All Pay was hit twice and President-Elect Julie Todd paid, too! It was a profitable day for the Club.

Don Havins was impressed with JiaYu Shi ♦s English! She studied English in Elementary School in China

Ted Durant had a dollar for missing the Souper Bowl but a buck for the reason: He will be on the Blues Cruise. Enjoy, Ted!

Greg Bruce had a happy buck for the weekly newsletter appreciating it keeping him on track! (thanks, Greg!) and a dollar for our visitor Judy Redpath for her trivia prowess.

PP Jim Frey had a dammit dollar for the Running Rebels and their loss to UNR.

PDG Larry Skaggs had a dollar for the formal wear argument ensuing at his table and another for his daughter in Chicago who was dealing with -28 degree weather.

Debbie Mitsch had a buck for the upcoming Super Bowl and that her son would be visiting for the weekend.

Dave Jochman was vertical and imposed a fine on Valerie for not wearing a hat. He shared more negative trivia about Indiana.

Shyloh Wehner had a dollar for missing the Souper Bowl but had a buck because her BFF will be in town for the weekend. Have fun, Shyloh!

Jim Paxton had a buck for being a Rams fan again and another for his trip to Jackson Hole with his ski group.

Linda Lee Lundgren had happy bucks for Ted and Valerie and Larry F. and Bob Dworkin and one for the Rams to beat the cheaters!

Judy Lloyd had happy bucks for Up with People and for our visitor with the same name, Judy; and one for her revolving door of houseguests.

Eric Wiley and Chelsey Panchot thanked the Club for inviting them to the meeting and for their potential support when the group comes to perform in Las Vegas, February 11  18. They will be helping at Souper Bowl.

Valerie Salerno paid her fine for not wearing her hat. She thanked the Club for having her. She had a loss this week but bonded with her sister-in-law.

Delinda Crampton had a happy buck for having the Up with People group in attendance.

Bill Collier had a buck for his trip to Santa Monica to join friends to watch the Rams win!

Jim Allanson welcomed all our guests.

Judy Redpath had a happy buck for the warm welcome she received and admonished Dave J. because she is an Indian Alumnus. PP Mike knew he liked her!!

Julie Todd had a happy buck for her new grandson named for her father and welcomed all visitors.

President Janet Pancoast had a happy buck for all visitors and claimed that  Life is Good .

UNLV Status Report: Chad Warren Presents

Amanda Gordon, UNLV Alumnus and current Board and Volunteer Relations Coordinator in the Office of Alumni Engagement & Annual Giving, shared her Rotary experience and has worked with PDG Larry Skaggs, PP Jim Frey and Christine Smith. She has attended three International Conferences as a Rotaract member. She is not a Rotarian (yet) but is married to Michael Gordon, Past President of the Las Vegas Club.

Amanda introduced Chad Warren, Sr. Associate Vice President for Alumni Engagement and Annual Giving; Executive Director, Alumni Association. He explained that after a Top Tier Initiative launched in 2014 aiming to achieve that status by 2025, UNLV was named to the top 120 Carnegie R1 Institutions in December 2018. Seven years early! This is a three-year designation and they are very proud to have earned it so soon. Strategies are in place to ensure the designation is retained in 2021.

Chad also shared the alumni engagement changes that are taking place. In his position, Chad was instrumental in launching the very successful RebelsGive fundraising drive in October, 2018, encouraging the community to get involved and to support campus programs. With so many alumni living locally, his goal is to get a higher percentage back to campus.

The Alumni Association will no longer be a dues-paying membership and all 120,000 alumni will automatically be members and will receive the benefits like free transcripts, career services, and resume review. The semi-annual edition of the UNLV Magazine will be sent to all members and each will receive their own unique alumni email address.

Chad is convinced the community can pull together as seen with the support of the Golden Knights and the Raiders. He urged everyone to love and embrace a hometown institution: UNLV.

Adjournment

George Baggott pulled a Jack so won $10.00 in the raffle. The pot was at $476. George then led the group in recitation of the Four-Way Test of the Things We Think, Say or Do.

President Janet Pancoast adjourned the meeting at 8:14 a.m.

Female surveillance officer for WHO pushes through gender-related obstacles to help eradicate polio from

Pakistan

Dr. Ujala Nayyar leads a team of health workers who crisscross Punjab to hunt down every potential incidence of poliovirus, testing sewage and investigating any reports of paralysis that might be polio. Pakistan is one of just two countries that continue to report cases of polio caused by the wild virus.
