AWARDS CELEBRATION

President Jack Stickle welcomed everyone to the 2019 Newark Rotary Awards Celebration before recognizing a few of the individuals who have contributed so greatly to our successes during the very exciting 2018–2019 Rotary Year.

The Rotarian of the Year and the Bravo Award are presented to two Newark Rotarians for their efforts in the community and in furthering the work of our Club. They both are outstanding individuals and we should be very grateful for their contributions.

-  Rotarian of the Year: Rick Platt
-  Bravo Award: Sarah Wallace

The Service Above Self Award recognizes a local non-Rotarian who exemplifies the values of Truth, Fairness, Goodwill and Beneficence. We're fortunate here in Newark to have many community members who actively live these values and this year's recipient is clearly among the best of the best.

-  Service Above Self Award: Don Jakeway

New award this year: The Theodore "T.D." Griley Five Avenues of Service Award. This honor is intended to recognize an individual, either Rotarian or non-Rotarian, who has accomplished a lifetime of achievements consistent with Rotary International's Five Avenues of Service — Club Service, Vocational Service, Community Service, International Service and Youth Service.

-  The Theodore "T.D." Griley Five Avenues of Service Award: T.D. Griley

President Jack Stickle closed the event with a thank you on behalf of the Board to all the attendees and the families of the recipients for allowing Rotary to be part of their lives and their participation in this event.

SERVICE PROJECT
