Great New Logo for MMFF!

27.2 miles with 40 lbs. on your back is Tough Ruck, and Scott E. completed it last week. He reports coming home with a Boston Marathon medal and "really sore legs."

All You Need To Know

Martin will lead the team Wednesday, telling all about plans for the 30th annual Magnificent Midlothian Food Festival, set for Oct. 13 this year.

As chair of the food vendors, Martin and his sidekick, Nick, have a critical job: without the food vendors, there is no food festival! From all accounts, they have been hard at work and are already getting food purveyors to sign on the dotted line.

Mark Jones of the Midlothian RC, general chair of the festival this year, also will present information. They'll be supported by Andy Foldenauer, president-elect of the Midlothian club.

Important meeting for all members to attend: this event is one of only two ways the club has of raising funds to support charitable efforts.

Nick gave his classification talk last week, including that he is "an active exercise enthusiast."

113 Trees on Our Own “Arbor Day”

HT Rotary had a really good crew Saturday at River City Sportsplex and got 113 trees in the ground (along with help from Midlothian RC members). The 113 trees represented one for each member of the two clubs. Beautiful day and the job was made MUCH easier because County employees had already dug the holes!

Rotary.org Nominated for international award

Rotary.org has been nominated for a Webby Award from the International Academy of Digital Arts and Sciences, which called Rotary.org “one of the five best sites in the world in its category.”

Nominated in the association category, Rotary.org is competing with four others for the 22nd annual awards.

“Nominees like Rotary are setting the standard for innovation and creativity on the Internet,” said Claire Graves, executive director of The Webby Awards. “It is an incredible achievement to be selected among the best.”

The Webby Awards are the leading international honor for excellence on the internet. Rotary.org is competing for both a Webby Award, whose winners are selected by the academy, and the Webby People’s Voice Award, whose winners are chosen by public vote.

The academy judged websites on several criteria: content, structure and navigation, visual design, functionality, interactivity, innovation, and overall experience.

Help us win the People’s Voice Award. You can vote until 19 April. The winners of each category will be announced on 24 April in New York City.

The four other nominees for best association site are:

- Paso Robles Wine Country Alliance
- 11th Macau Design Biennial
- Trade Works for Us
- Center for Court Innovation

Visit the webbyawards.com for a full list of categories and nominations.

Did you see Greer (at the top) in Discover Richmond this week? She was honored by her company, Liz Moore & Assoc., as one of the Richmond Association of Realtors Production Award Winners for 2017! And, she just passed her broker’s exam!
Good job, Greer!
