Nov. 7 Meeting

In celebration of World Interact Week the three club members who work with our Interact clubs gave an update on the clubs' projects which include preparing trees for the Festival of Trees to benefit Loisann's Hope House. The Montain View Interactors helped with dictionary distribution.

We had two speakers: Faye Cowper, daughter of former Stafford Rotarian Rusty Cowper, told us about her work for the Peace Corps and her daily life in Morocco.

Join the Rotary Peace Academy

Rotary and the Institute for Economics and Peace have created a free, self-paced training course for Rotarians to learn how to build and sustain peace in their communities. The Rotary Peace Academy uses the institute's internationally recognized eight-pillar Positive Peace framework to explain:

- How peace is measured
- The difference between Positive Peace and Negative Peace
- How Positive Peace can improve your home, Rotary club, community, and country
- How to engage in Rotary's work in peace and conflict resolution using Positive Peace concepts

The academy is for members who want to learn more about peace and take action to address one of the world's biggest challenges. To get started, just sign up at <http://rotarypeaceacademy.org/> . It's free.

The DG's Official Visit

: Once a year, the District Governor (DG) is required to make an official visit to each Club in the District.

The purpose of the visit is:

- Discuss RI President's priorities and highlight important initiatives of Rotary
- Discuss District 6910 priorities and goals
- Motivate club members to participate in club and district activities and service projects
- Recognize outstanding club projects and the work of individual Rotarians
- Discuss important club matters with club leaders
