Pop Up For Day Of Charity

We donated packaging Tide Pods and packaged them for the Food Bank.

We welcomed one back & Inducted another

Fred Nystrom, a well-known Rotarian and Issaquah volunteer rejoined our club!

We added 1 new member this month. Welcome to the club Ayla McKorkle!!

MEETINGS DURING THE MONTH

Kaj Pedersen, District 5030 Governor updated our club on the latest District news and helped us celebrate International Day of Charity, Rotary style. We had one of our Pop Up Charity program, packaging Tide (Laundry) Pods for the Food Bank.

Bonnie DeCaro-Monahan, Development Direction, Issaquah Food Bank updated us on the latest happenings at the food bank.

Ann Hegstrom gave her classification talk 3.0. It was fascinating to hear about her career path. Thank you for sharing Ann!

Beau's handy work at a "check" to the Issaquah Food and Clothing bank. Gladly accepted by Bonnie!

Debbie introduced our new Greeter, Claire. She will be with us until she finds a paying job. If your company or know of any that would be a potential fit for Claire, please let Debbie know!

Thanks to Ann for organizing the table at the annual Food Bank of Issaquah Breakfast

The Turkey Trot is BACK!! Plan on getting up early on Thanksgiving morning and join us for a little walk before the big feast!
