

The Officers of the Rotary Club of Kelowna Sunrise Serve as the Clubs' Trustees

Story by Ed Kolybaba

Effective Leadership, through the act of trusteeship, is the key to a Rotary club's success and growth, and to its core function to provide humanitarian service and to advance goodwill and peace around the world.

Through trusteeship, the president and his/her executive/board's commission is to serve as trustees. As trustees, they carry out the function of watching, guarding, overseeing or managing the club, its culture, its purpose and its focus in accordance with Rotary International.

The officers guided by the president and working cooperatively with the president, give, show, and assume leadership while "holding the charter of public trust" as trustees of the club. They give leadership when responding to situations, through their actions, and when determining a course of action or deciding to move the Rotary club in a certain direction.

The Rotary Club of Kelowna Sunrise expresses gratitude to and honours the Rotarians who are currently members of the club for their service in providing leadership as the president of the club; and to the Rotarians who are now members of the club but have served as president with other clubs. The club is also appreciative of those who have served in this position but who are no longer members of the club. In their capacity as presidents, all have taken on the role of trustees with dignity, truth and compassion.
