

The Rotary Instrumental Music Competition takes place each year in January. The high school contestants are graded by professional musicians and receive a scholarship for winning. The winner will go on to the regional competition. Please check back in the fall for dates and details on entering the 2026 competition.