Award-winning local author Bonnie Jo Campbell brings her history, as well as many personal items from her writing world to the Kalamazoo Valley Museum in a mini-exhibit that showcases “What It Means to Be a Hometown Writer.” Bonnie was born in 1962 in Comstock, Michigan, and grew up on a small farm with her mother, Susanna, and four siblings (and neighbors and cousins) in a house her grandfather Herlihy built in the shape of an H. Her first collection of stories, Women & Other Animals, won the Grace Paley Prize in 1999, and her book Q Road was a Barnes & Noble Best New Writers selection. Her next novel, American Salvage, was a National Book Award Finalist and won a National Book Critics Circle award. Once Upon a River, released in 2011, was a national bestseller now published in nine languages and has been adapted to film. Her new novel, The Waters, takes place in a Southwest Michigan swamp and was chosen for Oprah’s list of Most Anticipated Books of 2024, the Saturday Evening Post Ten Reads for the New Year, and the Apple Books List. The exhibit, through photos, awards, souvenirs from her travels, and other items, showcases her work as well as her inspirations for writing.

About John Showman and Chris Coole:

Through twenty years and a couple of thousand shows together in bands such as The Foggy Hogtown Boys and The Lonesome Ace Stringband, John Showman and Chris Coole have developed a deep and instinctual musical bond. Their music lurks in a truly unique space that is somewhere on the outskirts of old-time, bluegrass, and folk. The songs of John Hartford, Hank Williams, Dock Boggs, and The Band share space with the fiddle tunes of Eck Robertson and Ed Haley. The duo’s original songs and tunes take in all these vistas and paint something both personal and timely.

They have performed across North America and Europe at festivals such as Merlefest, Rockygrass, Winnipeg Folk Festival, Mariposa, Wintergrass, Gooikroots, and The John Hartford Memorial Festival. In 2022, the duo released two albums; “Afield” a collection of old-time fiddle tunes, and “Much Further Out than Inevitable – A Tribute to Some Music of John Hartford.”

American Realism: Visions of America, 1900-1950

January 20, 2024 - April 14, 2024 at 11:00 am

Presented by Kalamazoo Institute of Arts, 314 S. Park Street, Kalamazoo, MI 49007

American Realism: Visions of America, 1900-1950 looks at this period through the paintings, drawings, and prints that sought to capture the new American experience, especially within the nation's burgeoning and rapidly evolving urban centers. Drawing primarily from the collections of three Michigan museums—the Kalamazoo Institute of Arts, Flint Institute of Arts, and the Muskegon Museum of Art—the show begins in the early 1900s and continues through the 1940s, highlighting artists whose work sought to define the era. The exhibition also explores the contributions of women and artists of color active during this period, to share a deeper look into the stories and lives of those who did not always receive widespread attention during that era.
