Totem in Stanley park

Day 1: Sunday, June 15, 2025 • Vancouver

Vancouver may have a familiar feel, as it is used often for movie and television settings. The bustling city has a vital cultural life encompassing museums, theater, and culinary delights. We clear customs and immigration at the airport, then make our own way to our hotel downtown. There's time to explore Vancouver on our own before meeting up for a group dinner to meet our fellow travelers and celebrate the start of our tour. Contact Joan or Cindy with Oui Travel for airfare and optional transfer assistance. D

Day 2: Monday, June 16, 2025 • Vancouver

We wake up to breakfast at the hotel and a guided tour of Vancouver. We venture into the 1000+ acres of Stanley Park to see the first-nations totem poles, the seawall promenade, lumberman's arch and more. Keep an eye out for whales in the harbor, blue heron, beavers, and even the five breeding pairs of bald eagles that call this diverse landscape home. We head back into town to visit the Chinatown and Gastown neighborhoods. We have the afternoon and evening on our own to explore other areas of the city, perhaps enjoying a whale watching cruise or a visit to Olympic Village. B

Day 3: Tuesday, June 17, 2025 • Rocky Mountaineer/Kamloops

We transfer to the station where we board the iconic Rocky Mountaineer train to begin our "First Passage to the West" journey. The hospitality onboard shines as we are served a hot breakfast on-board, while stunning views of the Fraser Valley pass outside our windows. The landscape changes as we climb the towering peaks of the Coast Mountains. There's time for friendly card and board games with fellow passengers or a quiet moment with a good book before we enjoy a three course meal. Before we

Day 4: Wednesday, June 18, 2025 • Rocky Mountaineer/Banff

Continuing in our easterly direction we see ever changing scenery as we climb the mountains. We have exceptional breakfast and lunch service onboard the train. Take time to relax and soak in the sites. We hear interesting tidbits of history and local lore from our knowledgeable train staff throughout the day. We ride past stunning Lake Louise and imposing Castle Mountain late this afternoon, before arriving in our final destination of Banff. We say goodbye to our train staff and transfer to our hotel for the evening on our own. The town of Banff is situated right in the middle of the national park, surrounded by mountains and lakes. The sun doesn't set until nearly 10 pm this evening, so there is plenty of time to enjoy dinner on our own before settling in to enjoy the waning light. B, L

Day 5: Thursday, June 19, 2025 • Banff

Nature calls! We explore some of the national park's best sights this morning. We visit a Lake Louise overlook and see the fabulous Fairmont Hotel. A gondola ride takes us to the top of Mount Sulphur where we can see six different mountain ranges. We take a dip in the natural hot springs and have a lovely lunch before returning to our hotel. Enjoy a free evening in Banff. B, L

Day 6: Friday, June 20, 2025 • Banff

A local guide joins our group for a walking tour of the historic Banff area. We learn about the First Nations of the area, how early settlers lived, and the men and women who developed the region.
