"Dayton Beer: A History of Brewing in the Miami Valley"

Speaker: Tim Gaffney, Author

Dayton Beer covers brewing history in western Ohio from Montgomery County north to Auglaize County, and from Darke County to Clark County. My presentation today will limit itself to four families who shaped Dayton's brewing industry in the 19th century: the Schwinds, Schantzes, Wehners and Olts. These families and their brewing businesses became closely intertwined over the last half of the century until they formed a single combine that dominated Dayton's brewing industry until Prohibition.

This Happened Last Monday...

President Elect Walt Hibner called the meeting to order in the absence of President Shaun Yu who was visiting family for the holidays. Bill Nance gave the invocation, led in the Rotary 4-Way Test and the Pledge of Allegiance. He then shared with us the news of the day.

Pam Plageman welcomed guests: Joani Hibner, spouse of Walt; Joe Lehman, spouse of Kelly; Marty Foos, spouse of Annie; Angela, daughter of Tom Budde; Ken Taylor, spouse of Sue.

Secretary Linda Groover then came to the podium reminding everyone of the upcoming Muse Machine Social. Susan Hayes made an announcement about the recent book club meeting at Hawthorn Hill. Steve Naas made an announcement that the bowling league will be going into the second half of the season in January and more bowlers are needed. He invited anyone that had an interest to please contact him. They will be creating another team or two. Linda then checked to be sure that we had a red ribbon member at each table. Reminder that you can still get queen of hearts tickets for today's drawing. Linda then announced and celebrated the birthdays for the next two weeks. Next up was Day-10s: Lorna Dawes gave a Day-30, Dennis Grant attempted to give via zoom. Unfortunately, we had technical issues and could not hear about his Day-10. Rick Thie gave a Day-100 and Sue Taylor gave a Day-100.

President Elect Walt came back to the podium and called on Kim Bramlage to explain the district wide relief project for tornado victims in Kentucky. Patrick Nugent then came to the podium and explained what happened to our original entertainment for the day, the Carillon Brass. Unfortunately, they had an outbreak of COVID. Patrick explained how he and his wife love classical guitar and how they stumbled onto a program and a guitar fest in Centerville and at the heart of both of these things was Jim McCutcheon. Patrick was delighted to be the one to introduce Jim and thank him for stepping in at the last minute to be our holiday entertainment. Jim shared with us several holiday melodies on his guitar and put everyone in a festive mood. We had a sign along to

An Update on Rotary Book Club

The December meeting of Book Club was a special one. How phenomenal to read two books about the Wright Brothers and Katherine Wright and discuss at Hawthorn Hill!

You had to be in the room to witness the synergy created by Rotarians who know our history, the people, and the companies that make Dayton unique. A special thank you to Brady Kress for hosting our event, telling us stories, and correcting misinformation. Dean Alexander and Brady took us on a tour of the house we will never forget.

Penny Wolff brought two guests; Patrick Nugent, Executive Director of the Performing Arts Alliance, and Kathleen Clawson, Dayton's Artistic Director for the Opera. It is fortuitous that Dayton will be presenting an original Opera called Finding Wright in February 2022. We are exploring making this a Rotary event and getting tickets.

Our next book is a History of Peace in Dayton, Ohio, by Tammy Newsom. Lonnie Franks is taking the lead in finding a speaker to walk us through how Dayton played an unprecedented role in the Peace Accords, and we're hoping to hold our next meeting at the new Peace Museum, so stay tuned.

Two thousand twenty-two meetings are bi-monthly on the second Tuesday: February 8, April 12, June 14, August 9, October 11, December 13, 2022.
