Speaker: Mike Watkins, President, Butler County Chapter, Sleep in Heavenly Peace

All children deserve a safe, comfortable place to lay their heads. Across the US, too many boys and girls go without a bed or even a pillow to sleep on. These children end up sleeping on couches, blankets, and even floors. This can affect their happiness and health. That's where Sleep in Heavenly Peace comes in. A group of volunteers dedicated to building, assembling and delivering top-notch bunk beds to children and families in need.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace had its start like many other charities, in a garage. It was Christmas time, a time of joy and happiness, a time of giving and love, but also a time of bitter, cold weather and snowstorms. A project, that was started with the build of one bed for a single family developed into something a whole lot more. With wood left over from the first bunk, another idea was created. Who else could benefit from this bunk?

Chair of the Day: Shaun Yu

This Happened Last Monday...

Shaun Yu called the meeting to order and welcomed everyone. Bill Nance introduced the invocation with a discussion about battles and how to deal with them. He then led the 4-way test and the Pledge of Allegiance. News headlines mentioned holiday shopping, travel, job resignations and law enforcement departments that gave out turkeys instead of traffic tickets.

Rotary Guests were introduced by Kim Bramlage. Donna Kastner had a guest Mardi Humphries, Integrated Data. There were no guests on Zoom. Linda Grover welcomed everyone. Checked to make sure everyone had on their pins, had a Red Ribbon member at the table and a woman at each table. Announcement from the Social Committee for the Muse Machine The Addams Family. There are still tickets available at $75 each and includes appetizers and the show. Friday, January 14, 2022. Linda acknowledged birthdays for Randy Clark, Dec. 1st COO of Dayton Masonic Center. Ashley Webb Dec. 1, Kathleen Carlson Dec. 2nd, John Lyman Dec. 3rd, Terry Rogers Dec. 4th.

Day 10s Jean Maychack Day 50 for the peace meals food project, became a grandmother for the 4th time, Brian Martin - Day 100 to the Paul Harris to honor his 5 children getting together for Thanksgiving, John Lyman Day 100 (Paul Harris) for his birthday, Dennis Grant Day 43 recognize the 43rd annual telethon (Sunday, 11am-2pm WDTN Ch. 2) for URS, Nicole Sturk, SCSA Day 10 reminder for Giving Tuesday, Sue Taylor Day 50, December Peace Feeding Project for the West Dayton Caravan of Churches, need more money for the meals, and Happy Chanukah, Frank Scott Day 100 to feed the hungry through the peace project.

President Shaun Yu counted 46 people in person and 30 online. Paul Gruner introduced new member Crystal Corbin, Deputy Director of the Montgomery County Improvement District. Rick Wegmann introduced Caryl Segalewitz, Development Manager for Goodwill/Easter Seals Miami Valley and a former member from the Oakwood Club.

Brian Martin was called to the podium and the Holiday Sweepstakes (December 13th) was covered. Past presidents had a meeting last Friday and their job is to chair the holiday sweepstakes as a fundraiser. The cost of the sweepstakes is $50 and that allows the member to be part of the gift portal. If you are going to be on Zoom you can drop off gifts. There were lots of gifts of alcohol last year and everyone was encouraged to bring something creative. There will also be a 50/50 raffle that day. He also presented the nominations for the Slate of Officers: See Attachment.

Kelly Lehman announced the Youth Peace in Action Program meeting for tonight. There are officially 26 students signed up. Carolyn Rice introduced the speaker: Donna Kastner She is developing a program called Silver is Gold with the Dayton Foundation. The program focuses on Generational Diversity. There are 5 or 6 generations currently in the workforce. They have not always played well together in the same sandbox. Boomers are staying in the workforce longer due to need or choice. Too young to be done. There is a new paradigm of the workforce due to longer life expectancy and rapid-fire change due to technology.

Del Mar Encore Fellow Initiative, a program of The Dayton Foundation, started in 2017. Donna is also a fellow with the initiative. She characterized these fellows as trusted advisors whispering in the ears of the future leaders.

A new fellowship was recently introduced to the community Silver is Gold. This program matches retired professionals with employers that have needs. Posting of opportunities and profiles on the website: silverisgold.org. Today we are facing a major labor shortage and the boomers are retiring faster than was expected.

The program Silver is Gold is conducting monthly workshops for retirees. They ask the retirees to identify their top two superpowers they have to offer. Feedback has been great with articles in the Dayton Daily News and Spectrum.

Questions?

Q. How are the retirees compensated? A. Between the employer and employee with some guidance.

Q. Are you working with non-profits in the volunteer arena? A. Yes, they are working with businesses and non-profits. SCORE is another organization matching volunteers and organizations.

Brian Martin discussed that his organization has a Del Mar scholar.

Q. How will you know what works/success? A. Stories about good matches will prove that it is working.

Q. How is the organization insuring there is age diversity in the formation of the Silver is Gold group. A. Intergenerational dialogue is critical to their progress.

Donna's email address is donna@silverisgold.org.

The Queen of Hearts drawing took place and no winner. Next week is a guest from Sleep in Heavenly Peace from the Butler chapter.
