Sinclair Community College - or on Zoom

"Update on the City of Dayton Police Department"

Kamran Afzal is the Director and Chief of Police for the City of Dayton. He came to Dayton in December 2021 with 30 years of law enforcement experience. He will be discussing his efforts and goals with the department. He will hopefully be giving us an update on the K-9 that the Red Ribbon Committee raised funds for last year and may be bringing with him a K-9 from the current roster.

Chair of the Day: Annie Foos

This Happened Last Monday...

President Walt Hibner called the meeting to order. He shared that Janet Lasley wife of Tom Lasley passed away on Thursday, January 26th. A celebration of life will take place Saturday, February 4th at 10:30 a.m. at First Baptist Church on 111 West Monument Avenue. A moment of silence was observed. Walt welcomed Bill Nance to the podium who led Rotarians in prayer, the Pledge, the Four Way Test, and news of the day.

Nancy Farkas welcomed guests and visitors. She welcomed our guest speaker Ken Serey and his wife Catherine. Steve Naas introduced Ashley Webb of Vulcan Tool and Armin Ljescanin who was previously a 2015-2016 Rotary Exchange Student for our club. He is from Bosnia. Chris Corba introduced Keelie Guston Chief Policy Officer at the Miami Valley Community Action Partnership, and Secretary for the League of Women Voters. Chris shared that Keelie was going to become a new Rotarian soon. Paul Gruner introduced Adam Schwiebert Government Relations Director for the Dayton Metro Library. Jeff Schiavone introduced his guest Heather Corbin who is the SBA Director at CityWide Development and Board Member for the Boy Scouts.

Linda Groover, Club Secretary, announced Rotarians with birthdays John Danis on 1/31 and Dick Meyer on 2/5. Happy birthday! Linda asked everyone to check their tables for a combination of men, women, and at least one Red Ribbon. She also asked if everyone if they were wearing their Rotary pins. If not, you were asked to leave $1.00 on the table.

Linda discussed the Rotary Leadership Institute (RLI) and invited Rotarians to participate. The next RLI will be November 4, 2023
Linda announced that Lorna won the 50/50 Pot last week. And reviewed rules for the next Queen of Hearts game which will start on February 6th:

- You must be present to win and/or purchase tickets (either in person or on zoom)
- The drawing is for members of the Dayton Rotary only.
- For the winner a W-9 form will need to be completed and you will be issued a W2-G form.
- The drawing will go to the very last card.
- This year there will be some seed money to start the new drawing, $318.00.

Linda made an announcement for the upcoming social event at Amber Rose on February 15th at 6:00 p.m. The Club will buy a round of appetizers. Please RSVP to Laura by February 10th.

Linda opened the floor for Day Tens:

- Frank Scott - $100.00 to the Dayton Foundation and $100.00 to Every Rotarian Every Year. Frank discussed two upcoming events the District Conference on April 28th and the Day of Giving on April 29th. We will be volunteering for Rebuilding Together Dayton.
- Sarah Hippensteel-Hall - She discussed Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA) and Camp Kern. Rotary will send up to 12 youth (sophomore and juniors in high school) to attend camp. The dates are March 17-19. There is a need for a minimum of 4 Rotarians to ride with the students to and from the camp.
- Dave Williamson - Day 10 because he sat with Armin at the 20th anniversary of the Peace Accords and another Day 10 because his mother's hometown.
- Steve Rubenstein - Day 23 for his Kansas City Chiefs.
- Sarah Hippensteel -Hall - $50.00 for her Paul Harris in recognition on her daughter's 16th bday.
- Nancy Farkas- Day 50 for Evanston, Illinois being her hometown and the home of Rotary International headquarters
- Dona Vella- Day 100 for Rotary International and in honor of Frank Scott and all of his work

Walt and Linda presented a check to Lorna in the amount $3519.00 and took pictures.

Rotary Spotlight - Bill Nance introduced Cindy Garner Executive Director at Clothes that Work. CTW is a non-profit organization that started in 1998, celebrating 25 years. Clothing and coaching is our focus. Clients come from a network of 40 agencies within the community. CTW is going mobile. They will be taking their services on the road to meet people where they are. Cindy discussed clients and providing them with professional clothing and coaching to assist them in achieving success. Cindy stated, "It is amazing to see the transformation." Learn more at www.clothesthatwork.org. Please note that their website is under construction but stay tuned as it should be up and running in a month or so.

Walt asked Karla Garrett Harshaw to introduce the guest speaker, Ken Serey. Ken is celebrating 50 years of marriage. He has 2 kids and 5 grandchildren. He retired in 2020 and began pursuing his passion to speak with veterans regarding their experiences. He is the author of "What's the Story?: Your Ohio Neighbors Share Their War Memories from Pearl Harbor to V-J Day." The book is a collection of first-hand stories from Ohio veterans who answered the call when our country needed them in World War II, Korea and Vietnam.

True stories from veterans who were there at Omaha Beach, the Battle of the Bulge, Hitler's hideaway and German POW camps in Ohio. Ken shared stories and pictures from his interviews and travels to gather the stories of our Veterans. You can purchase his book on Amazon: What's The Story?: Your Ohio Neighbors Share Their War Memories: from Pearl Harbor to V-J Day: Serey, Ken: 9798986252506: Amazon.com: Books

Walt returned to the podium. The meeting was adjourned. The next meeting is February 6, 2023. City of Dayton Chief of Police and an update from their K9 Unit.
