This Happened Last Monday...

President Walt called the meeting to order at 12:07. Bill Nance provided the invocation and message about "Faith, Peace and Love can survive with Hope" 20 members joined us on zoom.

Nancy Farkas Introduced guests and visitors:

- Gerry Chadwick – wife Margo
- Walt Hibner – wife Joani, "celebrating 35 years of wedded bliss"
- Sue Taylor – husband, Ken, and Barbara Blauman (fellow cat rescuer)
- Lisa Grigsby – Jeremy Turner (Applied Pressure Washing) and Audrey Starr, new executive director with the American Heart Association
- Lorna Dawes – Kathy Morris (from WSU)

It should be noted that nearly all guests seemed to be fans of today's speaker, Jonathan McNeal from the Neon Movies.

Secretary Linda Groover came to the podium:

Rotarian birthdays for the week include:

- Merle Wilberding – March 8
- Evelyn Davidson – March 12
- Terry Offenberger – March 12
- Ken May – March 12

Linda then announced that the next Fireside Chat will be hosted by Walt and Joani Hibner, on April 6, at their home. It's free for Rotarians, limit 30, party fare, drinks, and will provide goodwill and better friendships.

Then members provided Day 10s and foundation donations:

Jack Lohbeck – Day 10 - The annual bowling contest with Cincinnati was held last Friday. Some had more fun than others and while he didn't run the stats, everyone had a great time. Unfortunately, Cincinnati Rotarians won, again. President Elect Kim may have to put some money in next year's budget for bowling lessons for the Dayton team.

Dave Williamson – Day 10 – Thanks to Paul Osterfeld (Linda's partner) for driving to the bowling contest in the torrential rain. And a Day 10 for Jack for getting bowlers and organizing a great event.

Dick Hattershire – Day 100 toward his Woodhull for the Bach Society of Dayton's upcoming concert, St. John's Passion on March 19.

Sarah Hippensteel Hall – Day 50 for our RYLA students (12) and for the recruitment of fellow Rotarians to chaperone their bus ride on March 17...highlight – stop at McDonald's! Another Day 50, for being in the news about recent high-water issues and the East Palestine train derailment's effects on the rivers.

Lorna Dawes – Day 50 for her guest and for Jonathan McNeal

Rhonda Starghill – Day 50 toward the Red Ribbon takeover project in April for the recent Girl Scout award winners.

Jeff Schiavone – Day 20 – for our generous support of the Boy Scouts of America event later in the week.

Gerry Chadwick Day – Day 100 as March 12 is he and Margo's daughter, Kate Vriner's, birthday.

Alexis Larsen gave a Day 50 toward the Victory Project (Red Ribbon Day) because she is so impressed with this non-profit.

Walt thanked all Rotarians for their unbelievable generosity. He asked for forgiveness for missing the bowling event and said "maybe next year...just like the Cleveland Browns."

Walt also talked about the Dayton Rotary Club Foundation, which reviews applications each quarter. Today Diabetes Dayton received a $3,000 check toward Camp Ko-Man-She scholarships. Walt and Joani know firsthand how wonderful this camp is because their son has diabetes and attended many years.

Frank Scott provided Fellowship presentations:

Paul Harris Fellowships - Iris Juergens (3rd), Matt Scarr (6th), Greg Birkemeyer (7th), Sue Taylor (9th)

Tom Lasley Education Fellowship – Gerry Chadwick and Chuck Watts

Thank you to all for your generosity!!

Chair of the Day Lisa Grigsby then came up to the podium to introduce our speaker, Jonathan McNeal from the Neon Movies with his annual Oscar preview presentation. He's been coming to our Club for 8 years and has managed the Dayton theater for 21 years.

He encouraged EVERYONE to come back to the theater! While the Neon is "back", 2022 attendance numbers were still only 55% of pre-Covid numbers. This independent, local gem showed more than 75 movies in 2022 and partners with other agencies and non-profits to provide excellent, unique theater experiences for people of all ages.

He then mentioned that MOST of the nominated films for Oscars in 2023 played at the Neon. And there is an Oscar party where the show will be on the big screen, attendees can win prizes and there will be cocktails and desserts available in the lobby prior to the show. Contact him for more info.

Here are the highlights for this year's Oscars:

Everything Everywhere All at Once – most nominations of any movie (11), fascinating film with an amazing female lead.

Tar – his favorite, and most viewers found Cate Blanchett so believable they thought it was a story about a real person. Marcel the Shell With Shoes On – A wonderful film, full of life, must see.

Here are the categories (Jonathan's "wish" pick is in yellow, and his guess at who WILL win in green) Blue highlighted is both his choice AND who he thinks will win.

Lead Actress – Cate Blanchett (TAR), Ana deArmas (Blonde), Andrea Riseborough (To Leslie), Academy doesn't have things in place to encourage diversity, Michelle Williams (The Fabelmans), Michelle Yeoh (Everything, Everywhere)

Supporting Actress – Angela Bassett (Black Panther), Hong Chau (The Whale) Kerry Condon (Banshees of Inisherin), Jamie Lee Curtis (Everything Everywhere), Stephanie Hsu (Everything Everywhere)

Lead Actor – Austin Butler (Elvis), Colin Farrell (Banshees of Inisherin), Brendan Fraser (The Whale), Paul Mescal (Aftersun), Bill Nighy (Living) Everyone's first!

Supporting Actor – Brendan Gleeson (Banshees), Brian Tyree Henry (Causeway), Judd Hirsh (The Fabelmans), Barry Keoghan (Banshees), Key Huy Quan (Everything Everywhere)

Best Picture Nominees

- All Quiet on the Western Front
- Avatar: The Way of Water
- The Banshees of Inisherin
- Elvis
- Everything Everywhere All at Once
- The Fabelmans
- TAR
- Top Gun: Maverick

In summary, screen counts at qualifying festivals impact nominations. Audiences for high-caliber films at theaters of all sizes has declined. People haven't returned to theaters because they have so many more streaming services. Unfortunately, the Neon is facing this challenge as well.

Walt thanked Jonathan and presented him with another set of coasters, to which he responded that he can now finish his backslash!!

Queen of Hearts – Paul Gruner had the winning ticket but picked the queen of spades.

Next week, March 13 – please RSVP! Cindy McCurdy, Devon Beck-Monahan – Girl Scouts of Western Ohio.

Red Ribbon Takeover to Support The Victory Project

DAYTON ROTARY 2023 RED RIBBON PROJECT

MARK YOUR CALENDARS FOR APRIL 17 - RED RIBBON TAKEOVER

ABOUT THE VICTORY PROJECT

Offering an alternative to the Streets for America's Youth, Victory Project® is a privately funded 501(c)3 after-school program mentoring disengaged young men, 8th-12th grade, in Dayton, Ohio. Victory Project students, alongside business mentors, manage their own micro-enterprise, Victory Improvement Projects, which provides real-world business experiences, exposure to individual financial responsibility and teaches the value of hard work while launching the student's own employment history.

THE NEED

The Victory Project needs a heavy duty hydraulic dump trailer. This trailer will save students up to a day of work that is currently spent on unloading the trailers. In 2021 Victory Project students earned $30,091 working a total of 2,962 hours completing 1,275 jobs. The dump trailer would make a world of difference charting a new legacy and path for themselves and for their families.
