This Week at Rotary

MONDAY, March 20, 2023

Sinclair Community College - or on Zoom

"Engaging and Leading in the Multi-Generational Workplace"

One of the greatest challenges for leaders today is navigating the differences between multiple generations in the workplace. While these differences can cause significant challenges, there is a way to operate effectively together. Chris McClure, McClure Coaching, will share some actionable tips that you can implement immediately to bridge the gaps and develop a healthier organizational culture.

Chair of the Day: Adam Horseman

This Happened Last Monday...

President Walt called the meeting to order at 12:10. Bill Nance provided the invocation, how to achieve the "good life" and shared current headlines. 23 members joined us via Zoom

Scott Kayser introduced guests and visitors:

- Georgie Woessner – Nancy White, former Executive Director of the Girl Scouts who came to hear about all the changes in scouting, including the price of cookies!
- Patty Caruso – son Addison Caruso (Zoom)

Sarah Hippensteel Hall filled in for Secretary Linda Groover.

This week's birthdays:

Bob Daley March 13
Rick Schwartz March 15
Stephen Keys March 18

Sarah announced that Walt and Joani Hibner will be hosting a Fireside Chat at their home on April 6. Rotary members are free, a charge of $20 for guests. Come and enjoy hearty fare and drinks. Reservations are limited to 30. RSVP to Laura.

We still need volunteers to chaperone RYLA students who will be traveling back and forth to Rotary Youth Leadership on March 17/18. A stop at McDonald's is included!

Day 10s and foundation donations

- Kim Bramlage Day 10 – In recognition of attending president-elect training. Lots of "Kool-Aid." and a Day 10 – Announced that Darlene Nelson is facing a long road to recovery after breast cancer surgery. Check the Rotary website for ways to help with a meal train to support Darlene and her family. Prayers for a complete recovery.
- Dan Zehringer Day 50 – come to the WSU Arts Gala on April 1. Great food, entertainment – designated for the Red Ribbon takeover project
- Chuck Watts Day 50 - in recognition of the Tom Lasley Education Fellowship to announce the 2nd Trimester Forum Series presented by Empathy Surplus Network
- Evelyn Davidson Day 100 - for the multiple March birthdays in her family including her own
- Nancy Farkas Day 50 - for the Red Ribbon takeover project and a Day 50 - for Dayton Classical public Radio fundraising campaign. She will match any donation made by a Rotarian. Mention ROTARY and Nancy when you make your donation
- Mollie Hauser Day 200- in honor of Dick, her husband and long-time Rotary member who passed away on March 13, 2018. $100 to the Red Ribbon takeover and $100 for Paul Harris
- Carolyn Rice Day 100- in appreciation of being named a Woman of Influence.
- Shaun Yu Day 50- toward his Paul Harris for Dayton Classical fundraising campaign. Donate by Friday to get entered into a drawing for a basket of classic MikeSells chips
- Rick Schwartz Day 100- for his birthday to go to the Red Ribbon project and a Day 100- in celebration of his being recognized at the Boy Scouts' Leadership breakfast. Rick will match any donations made by Friday to Dayton Classical when they mention "Rotary" when they call in.
- Jeff Schiavone Day 11 - in recognition of the Boy Scouts recently honoring Rick Schwartz and to remind everyone about the Boys Scouts food drive on March 18
- Patty Caruso Day 21 - for her son Addison's birthday and his being awarded a fellowship to Case Western Reserve to study environmental law.
- Scott Kayser Day 50 - toward the Red Ribbon project
- Sarah Hippensteel Hall Day 50 - for her Paul Harris in recognition of her experience as a Girl Scout
- Chris Corba Day 10 - to announce the Trailblazing Women of Ohio Politics on March 16 at DML designated toward Red Ribbon takeover project
- Frank Scott Day 100 - designated toward the Red Ribbon takeover project

Frank recognized three members for their Paul Harris Fellowship donations. He mentioned that there were 1,200 global grants awarded from a pool of $75,000,000 donated by Rotarians.

Walt Hibner received his 2nd Paul Harris Fellowship, Jim Steen received his 3rd Paul Harris Fellowship and Steve Naas received his 9th (and last) Paul Harris Fellowship. Moving forward he will be recognized as a "major donor."

Would you like to donate to the Red Ribbon takeover project for the Victory Project but can't make it to a meeting in person? Here's how to donate on-line to support their efforts!

Program: Girl Scouts of Western Ohio: So Much More than Crafts, Cookies and Camps!

Rhonda Starghill introduced Cindy McCurdy, Dayton Regional Director, who, according to Rhonda, is a professional Girl Scout! She started off as a volunteer and rose through the ranks to oversee 32 counties and to support 2000 girls in 200 troops and 1400 adult volunteers. Their mission is to "...build girls of courage, confidence and character, who make the world a better place." The Girl Scouts partner with a number of organizations who help the girls earn badges.

Cindy described many of the programs sponsored by the Girl Scouts. The Girl Scout Experience is made up of Variety of Activities + Supportive Relationships + the Three Girl Scout Processes (all programs and activities are "girl-led") that result in a strong sense of self, positive values, challenge-seeking, healthy relationships and community problem solving.

In addition to traditional troops, the Girl Scouts offer Direct Service Programming targeted at serving over 600 girls who attend Title One schools. They offer Spring Break and Summer Day Camps, Twilight camps and more.

Camp for Every Girl offers a week at a resident camp for girls who would not be able to participate otherwise. For a fee of $15, the girls can attend camp and will receive (because of donations!) a sleeping bag, sheets, and other camping gear and supplies to make their stay comfortable. They even send the girls and their families to the camp ahead of time so they know what to expect.

Girl Scouts for Every Girl will send 60 girls for a three-day, 9AM to 3PM camp where they'll be able to make s'mores, hike and swim.

Charlotte, a scout who's in the 6th grade told us about her experiences as a Girl Scout. Her troop built a "buddy bench" (made from 200 lbs. of bottle caps!) which was placed at an elementary school playground. Kids who are feeling lonely can sit on the bench as a signal to others that they need a friend today.

Her troop is also raising money through the sale of 14,000!!!! boxes of cookies to travel to Savannah GA.

As an aside, Fran Rickenbach shared a traveling tip: Offer the flight attendant a box of Thin Mints and amazing things will happen for you.

Charlotte pulled the Queen of Hearts ticket. Dan Zehringer had the winning ticket but pulled the 7 of Spades.
