

HUMAN TRAFFICKING IN OHIO

KEY CHARACTERISTICS OF IDENTIFIED HUMAN TRAFFICKING VICTIMS

- The majority of victims were white (57.6%). More than a third were black (35.4%), while 6.4% were multi-racial. 92% identified as non-Hispanic/Latino.
- The majority of victims were identified in higher population, urban counties (80%).
- Sex trafficking (86.8%) is far more prevalent than labor trafficking.
- The majority of victims were minors (85.5%).
- The majority of victims were female (82.6%).

University of CINCINNATI

Source: Anderson, Valerie, Kulig, Teresa, & Sullivan, Christopher (2019). "Estimating the Prevalence of Human Trafficking in Ohio."

- Estimating the Prevalence of Human Trafficking in Ohio (2019)
- 1032 Identified Victims. 4209 At Risk. Very Conservative Est.