Last week's meeting

Donation to and program by Alzheimers Tennessee . Shown from right to left, Colleen Mall, Rotarian who made the check presentation, Amanda Armstrong, Development Director in Knoxville, Lynn Drew, Plateau Regional Director, Melanie Hendricks Project Coordinator, Cookeville Office. Amanda led the presentation on how widespread Alzheimer's Disease is and how it is projected to expand as population ages.

Alzheimer's disease is now considered medically as a "cause of death" which was not the case a few years ago. Alzheimer's Tennessee focuses efforts on helping patients and caregivers locally cope with the disease and its effects on both patient and family. The next Alzheimer's Walk was announced and we were encouraged to begin setting up teams for this event like we have in past years. For more info go to www.alztennessee.org
