- RI Leads:
 - If you are not familiar with the R.I. Leads program, be sure to visit the Learning Center at My.Rotary.org and take the session entitled "Online Membership Leads." This can be found under the membership tab: <https://learn.rotary.org/members/learn/catalog/view/70>
 - The following clubs have open or unresolved new member leads in the system. If your club is on this list you should (1) go to the R.I. Leads portal in My.Rotary.org, (2) follow-up with your lead(s) and invite the prospect to a meeting, (3) make them feel welcome, (4) keep the system updated on the status of the lead from start to finish.

Open Leads from October:

Loganville, Rome-Seven Hills, South Forsyth, Gwinnett

Open Leads from September:

Lawrenceville (2), Rome-Seven Hills, The Classic City of Athens, Dalton

Open Leads from August:

S. Forsyth, Forsyth / Cumming (2), Clayton, The Classic City of Athens

- *Don't forget about our campaign to encourage clubs to generate strategies and programs to save a member. Here's the link to the goal spreadsheet: https://dacdb.com/Rotary/Accounts/6910/Downloads/0/Membership/Membership_Retention_Numbers - SAVE A MEMBER.pdf
We are asking each club to find, develop, and implement new and innovative ways to save at least one member who may now be on the path to leaving*

Rotary. Let's get creative and find ways to engage and make sure our members know they are valued!
