

Building Homes, Strengthening Communities

The Future of Attainable Housing

The Rotary Club of Canton invites you to a dynamic panel discussion addressing the attainable housing crisis in Cherokee County. Learn from industry experts and community leaders as they explore challenges, share insights, and discuss actionable solutions to ensure housing opportunities for all.

Featuring Canton Rotarians

Marianne Butler

Executive Director, Homeless Coalition of Cherokee County

Amber Jones

Development Associate, Serenade Heights, INC

Brantley Day

Director, Cherokee County Community Development Agency

Dr. Debra Murdock

Chief of School Leadership & Operations
Cherokee County School District

Harry Johnston

Chairman, Cherokee County Board of Commissioners

Steve Napier

Executive Director for Habitat for Humanity North Central Georgia

Darrell Rice

Board Chair, Canton Housing Authority

Rorie Scurlock

Associate Vice President of Economic Stability, United Way of Greater Atlanta

Tuesday, March 4, 2025 at Noon
Timbers at the Mill on Etowah

225 Reformation Pkwy Suite 202
Canton, GA 30114

Sponsorship Opportunities

Platinum $5,000

- 8 Tickets for the event
- Company name on table at the event
- Company name/logo on event digital display
- Company name/logo in social media posts

Gold $2,500

- 6 Tickets to the event
- Company name/logo on event digital display
- Company name/logo in social media posts

Silver $1,000

- 4 tickets to the event
- Company name/logo on event digital display
- Company name/logo in social media posts

Bronze $500

- 2 tickets to the event
- Company name/logo on event digital display
- Company name/logo in social media posts

Friend of Rotary $250

- 2 tickets to the event

General Admission

- Tickets are $35 each
- Admission includes lunch

