

The Altus Area Sunset Rotary Club Christmas Concert

First United Methodist Church
Ozark, Arkansas
Thursday, December 6, 2012

Dinner: Gardner Center: 5:00 to 6:45 - $15.00

Past Altus Rotary President Steve Outlaw and club members will be serving Cream Corn Chowder, Spring Salad, Breast of Chicken Eden Isle, French Quarter Green Beans, Herb Buttered Mashed Potatoes, Garlic Seasoned Bread, Coffee and Tea followed by Steve's signature Chocolate Mousse.

FREE CONCERT

7:00 P.M. Methodist Church Sanctuary
Piano music to accompany dinner in the Gardner Center

Fayetteville's Piano Man
Jonathan Story, who has performed internationally and at the White House,
will provide Dinner Music

The Altus Area Sunset Rotary Club Christmas Concert

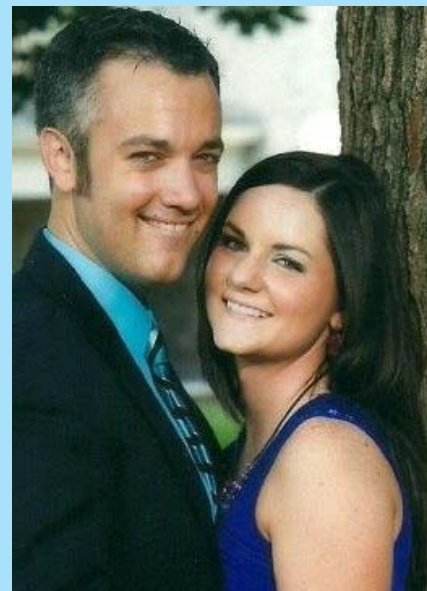

Kara and Jonathan will perform together highlighting the Methodist Church
101 year old Killinger Organ

Kara and Jonathan's Biography

Kara Story recently graduated from the University of Arkansas-Fayetteville with a Master's in Choral Conducting. While at the U of A she served as conductor of Donna Voce, musical director of the Barbara Mashburn Singers, and worship leader of Calvary Chapel in Rogers. In May of 2010 she completed her Bachelor of Arts in Music at the University of Arkansas-Fort Smith, where she participated in the Jazz Catz, the Jazz Band, the UAFS Chorale and the Vocal Performance Workshop. She was named Outstanding Soloist at the North Texas Jazz Festival in April 2008. She currently resides in Fayetteville, teaches voice and piano privately, and participates in the choir and praise team at Central United Methodist Church.

Jonathan Story received his Master's in Piano Performance in 2008 from the University of Arkansas. Dubbed "Fayetteville's Piano Man", he serves as organist of Central United Methodist Church in Fayetteville, pianist for the Singing Men of Arkansas, and President of the Barbara Mashburn Scholarship Foundation. His virtuosity on piano and organ have taken him to venues including Germany, Austria, Ireland and even the White House in Washington, DC. He is a sales associate at Coldwell Banker Harris McHaney & Faucette in Fayetteville, and is active in his church, having recently traveled to Peru and Uganda on medical missions.

Kara and Jonathan were married at Central United Methodist Church in Fayetteville on August 18.

Donations for the Angel Tree and for Polio Eradication will be accepted.